Good morning, everyone. I'm Li Hua. It's my honour to be here to deliver a speech titled Why We Should Protect Cultural Heritage. Nowadays, people's weak awareness of protecting leaves a great deal of cultural heritage unprotected. What's worse, some is being damaged due to human activities such as tourism booming. However, regarded as a symbol of a nation's splendid civilisation, cultural heritage not only represents the characteristics of the country, but also contributes to historical research. Therefore, it's high time for us to take effective measures to protect cultural heritage. That's all. Thank you for your listening.

(一) 参考范文

Possible version:

Paragraph 1

"Get the scissors from the toolbox." I shouted. Isaiah ran, splashing his way to shore. He came back with a tiny pair of scissors, saying, "You pick it up, and I will cut away the line." I took a deep breath and closed my eyes, feeling my dad's presence and guiding us shoulder to shoulder. Trembling with fear, I bent down, picked it up and held it tightly. After Isaiah cut away the wire from its neck, we breathed a sigh of relief.

Paragraph 2

As I set the loon down on the water, it beat its wings joyfully. Then, fixing its red eyes directly on us, it rose up and slapped its wings down hard on the surface of the lake. It seemed to be saying, "Thanks for saving me, boys." Still shaking, I couldn't believe we made it. Back on shore, Uncle Rick had been watching. "Boys, I'm awfully proud of you both. You worked together and kept that loon alive." Looking at those birds making their way in front of the sun, I was lost in thought, "Yeah, we did. But I couldn't have done it without my dad."

W: Where do you work?

M: I work in a cafe.

W: Why do you like the job?

M: It's interesting. I really enjoy working with people and get extra money.

W: Well, we haven't decided yet. The nearest beach London has is Canvey Island Beach. It only takes an hour's drive from London, but we go there often.

M: We can go to Kemp Town Beach in Brighton or Birling Gap Beach in East Sussex. Kemp Town is famous for its coastal walks, the Seven Sisters path along the south coast. We can surf, swim, and fly kites.

W: Sounds fun! But the water is not so clean. I prefer to go to Birling Gap because the water quality is excellent.

M: How long does it take to get there?

W: It'll take us about two hours to go there by train.

W: I'm sure it was a great way to spend the day.

M: It was! We were in a kitchen from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. It was a very interesting experience. After the first half hour when the teacher told us what to use, it took me only three hours to make a very special meal with very simple foods such as cheese, vegetables and eggs. When I got back in the evening I was really happy about the results.

W: Was the kitchen large?

高一英语学科 答案 第5页(共6页)

M: Very large. And today I'll try to make a meal for my grandmother. She really loves trying new dishes.

(Text 10)

M: Good afternoon, and welcome to Hollywood, California. And I'm your tour guide, Jack. I hope you all enjoy today's tour of the houses of the stars. Here we go! Now remember, you can buy photos of all the stars' houses when the tour is over, so please don't take any pictures during the tour, okay? Up on the left is the house where Marilyn Monroe lived. After she got married, she left this house and moved to New York to live with her husband, a famous American baseball player named Joe Di Maggio. Now, just around the corner you'll see a bright yellow house. Can you see it? Up on the hill? This is where James Dean lived. Finally, do you see that big gate on the right? Well, this is the entrance to Arnold Schwarzenegger's house. Unfortunately, you can't see the house from here, and we're not allowed to go inside the gate.
