Positive Attitude Makes Perfect

Dear teachers and students,

I am so honored to have a chance to deliver a speech here, where I want to share my journey of
"Positive Attitude Makes Perfect".

Though knowing nothing is more important than diligence and persistence in Senior 3, I still feel frustrated when faced with seemingly endless obstacles in my study. Without a positive attitude, I would surrender to them at any time. What I bear in mind is to be positive about everything, which not only inspires me to brave difficulty in my way but also helps me make great progress.

A positive attitude is a lighthouse guiding us to our destination and a warrior protecting us from failure, with which I firmly believe that we can have a bright future. May we succeed!

W: Thanks for offering, Mike! That's really sweet.

Text 2

W: Joey, can you meet Mr. Stevenson at the airport?

M: I'm afraid I can't. You know, I have a meeting at 1:30 p.m.

W: Well, the meeting will be over at 2:30 and his flight lands at 3:30.

M: OK, I can make it then.

Text 3

M: What is the problem? Mrs. Miller.

W: I have a really bad toothache. My cheek is swollen and I can't eat anything.

M: Don't worry. Let me have a look!

Text 4

W: Hi, Jacob. This is Cindy. I heard you are sick. Is there anything I can do to help? Can I bring you any medicine?

M: I'm okay, thanks. I don't want you to catch this illness.

W: OK, then I hope you get well soon.

Text 5

M: Michelle, could you tell me the homework for the class yesterday?

W: Sure. You need to find a documentary about wildlife and write an article after watching it.

M: Hi Sophie, sorry I'm late. You know how I love crosswords? Well, I was just doing one, and I forgot the time...

W: We need to have a word, Jack.

M: We need lots of words, Sophie.

W: What?

M: To complete a crossword successfully, we need to have lots of words.

W: No, not your crossword. I'm talking about your lateness. I mean we need a short, serious discussion about this sensitive topic.

M: Oh, I see. You're upset that I'm late, so you asked me for a word.

W: That's right. Showing up on time is a must. And it helps improve your work efficiency.

M: OK, Sophie. I understand. I'll make an effort to be on time and focus on my job from now on.

M: Hi, I'd like to rent a car. And I've made a reservation for a mid-sized vehicle. The name is Jimmy Fox.

W: I'm sorry, we have no mid-sized cars available at the moment.

M: I don't understand. I made a reservation. Do you have my reservation?

W: Yes, we do. Unfortunately we have run out of mid-sized cars.

M: But the reservation keeps the car here. That's why you have the reservation.

W: I know why we have reservations.

M: I don't think you do! If you did, I'd have a car. See, you know how to take the reservation, you just don't know how to hold the reservation and that's really the most important part of the reservation, the holding!

W: Sorry, sir. But we do have a small-sized electric car if you'd like.

M: Fine. I'll take the electric car.

W: Alright. We have a Tesla Model Q for you Mr. Fox. Would you like insurance?

M: You better give me the insurance, because I am gonna beat the hell out of this car!

W: I love this shop, Mark! It has everything you need. Look at this suitcase! Real leather. Very smart. I'm getting the yellow one. Take the black one for yourself, Mark. Wow, this pink suitcase is really eye-catching and it costs less than the yellow one! I think the pink one would be the better choice.

M: I can't buy anything at the moment. I haven't got any money.

W: You should save some money so you can buy things like this.

M: You see, I saved some money but I lent it to a friend last month and I'm still waiting to be paid back.

W: Oh, Mark. You shouldn't lend money to just anybody...

M: Really?! Yes, last month someone came to me and said she needed some cash desperately.

W: Oh... Oh, that's right! It was me... Sorry.

M: Well, finally the penny dropped!

W: I'll pay you back. I promise.

M: Sure, Rachel. I'd ... Hey, you look pretty upset. What's the matter?

W: I don't know how to tell you this, but... I know I was green at the very beginning, but now I think I've been an experienced waitress. So I believe I should be paid a higher wage.

M: Oh? How much do you want then?

W: About sixty dollars a week more than what I'm earning now.

M: What? Sixty dollars? Are you serious?

W: I'm afraid I am. In fact, if you don't give it to me, I'm going to give up the job.

M: I'm sorry but... Well, I'll give you a thirty-dollar raise next month. Will that satisfy you?

W: I won't accept that, sir. I said I want sixty.

M: Though the restaurant runs well, the rent and the prices of all kinds of materials have gone much higher. I'm afraid a thirty-dollar raise is my best offer.

W: Well, it has been nice working for you. I must be off now.

M: Remember if you ever change your mind, I'll be happy to have you back.
