Dear Jason,

How is everything going? Having learned that you desire to join our school's Chinese Painting Association, I am here to extend my warmest welcome on behalf of all the members.

Various activities will be held on a monthly basis, ranging from traditional Chinese painting appreciation to painting skills teaching. We will organize field trips to famous galleries in town to observe artworks up close. In addition, teachers will be invited to give lectures on how to produce a traditional Chinese painting, after which you can apply what you have learned into practice.

If you truly want to be one of us, contact me at 123456.

Looking forward to your early reply.

Yours,

Li Hua

第二节 (满分 25 分)

Para 1:

While he was struggling with his options, his father came over. Seeing his mixed expression, his father asked him what was happening. Baskin couldn't help telling him the truth. His father listened attentively and gave his advice. He told Baskin he should tell the truth and admit his mistake. Baskin thought the customers probably wouldn't notice the mistake as they were not paying too much attention. His father said that he should always be honest and that way he would always be trusted. Baskin nodded seriously.

Para 2:

When the customers came to pay the bill, with his father's advice in mind, Baskin decided to do the right thing. He explained the situation to the customers and apologized sincerely for the error. The customers were surprised at this and said they hadn't noticed the mistake at all. Instead, they said that the wine they were served still tasted very good and finished by giving him a large tip. To Baskin's relief, his father also forgave him for his mistake, saying that no harm had been done and the customers were satisfied with the service. Thinking back, Baskin was grateful to his father for such good advice and also learned an important life lesson.
