My Intelligent Robot for Learning English

Aiming to improve students' learning efficiency and help them tackle their problems timely, I designed an intelligent robot to assist students in learning English.

With this English learning assistant, students can have someone make a conversation in English so that they can practise their oral English. Additionally, this intelligent robot can not only help students check their compositions by finding some grammar mistakes and spelling mistakes, but also offer some inspiration for students to have new ideas for their writing assignments. What's most impressive is that it is capable of providing some exercises according to the mistakes collected in their former exercises.

I do hope students can benefit from my invention.

Paragraph 1:

My grandmother drove over to pick me up. Realizing I was unusually quiet, she asked me what had happened. I talked about the talent show. Looking at my face from the mirror in the front of the car, She said gently, "Honey, your ideas deserve to be considered carefully." She also suggested I tell the truth. Hearing what she said, I thought about it over and over again. I began to realize that it wouldn't hurt to let Tina know what I really wanted if she was a true friend of mine. Finally, I made up my mind to talk to Tina.

Paragraph 2:

When we got home, I took 12 deep breaths before I called Tina. With butterflies in my stomach, I waited for her to pick up the receiver. After I got through, I told her that I was going to do my juggling act alone. Much to my relief, she said OK after a short silence. Before hanging up, she also wished me success. The next day, she described her act and I talked about my practice. We encouraged each other and exchanged ideas. I found it not so hard to speak up for myself. On the day of the talent show, my wonderful performance received thunderous applause from the audience. It was the talent show that boost my confidence and made me into a better person by speaking up bravely.

Text 1

W: I'm looking for a place to rent a suit. My husband and I have some weddings to attend in the area, so I'm looking to rent for one or two months.

M: There's a shop beside the car rental agency. There's also one opposite the book shop.

Text 2

W: Somebody help! That man took my bag and is running away! Can anyone run after him?

M: Are you hurt, Madam? Do not worry. I'll catch him.

Text 3

M: Wonderful view from up here, isn't it?

W: Great. But I'm worn out. We're at the top, aren't we?

M: Just about three hundred metres to go.

Text 4

W: I'm tired of selling shoes.

M: My friend Tom is the manager of a large company. He wants a secretary.

W: It sounds good. Will you please introduce me to Tom?

M: It's a pleasure.

Text 5

M: Have you decided where to live in the future?

W: I'd like to live in the countryside to save on expenses and also escape the chaos and crowds of the city, but my husband wants a flat in the city center so that we won't have to travel a long way to get what is needed.

Text 6

M: Guess what I'll be doing this summer?

W: What?

M: I'm going to work at the Riverside Hotel.

W: What exactly will you be doing?

M: Let's see. I'll be doing some small repairs inside and outside the hotel. I'll be cutting grass and taking care of the flowers.

W: Sounds interesting. What's the pay?

M: Well, uh... about fifteen dollars an hour, five hours a day, and Sunday free.

W: That's good money. What are you going to do with it?

M: I'll pay for the textbooks for next term.

Text 7

M: Mrs. Robinson, I'm Dr. Andrews. Your son, Jesse, is going to be all right.

W: Oh, thank goodness! What happened to him? I just got a call from the police department to come down here.

M: We're not quite sure. We think the accident was the other driver's fault. And that caused Jesse's car to crash into a tree. The damage to Jesse's car would suggest that.

W: Can I go in and see him?

M: I'm afraid not right now, Mrs. Robinson. We need to do some tests. I'll give you an update in a few hours, OK?

W: All right. But what are we supposed to do now?

M: I'd advise you to get something to eat and be back in three hours, and by that time, I should have more information for you.

W: Thank you so much, Dr. Andrews!

Text 8

W: Oh, it's so nice to be out of the cinema. It was so hot inside.

M: Terrible, wasn't it? Well, what do you think of the film Wuthering Heights?

W: It is a good film, but not as good as the book. I feel something is missing in the film.

M: Yes, but you can't possibly fit everything that happens in the novel into a 2-hour film. There isn't enough time.

W: I know, but the director should at least try to follow the story. With this film he left out some important people and even changed the end.

M: Well, perhaps he thought he was improving the story.

W: Perhaps he did, but I just don't think a film director has the right to do so.

Text 9

W: What do you think I should do for my birthday this year?

M: You should have a really big party! Maybe a pool party!

W: That would be fun. I don't really like swimming, though. Maybe I'll have a roller-skating party.

M: What about an ice-skating party?

W: Yeah, that's even better! I'll definitely invite Katie and Sammy.

M: What about Melinda?

W: Yes, Melinda, too. Do you think I should invite Kelly?

M: No, because she didn't invite you to her party last month. Am I allowed to invite anyone?

W: You can invite one friend, but that's it.

M: Fine. I'll invite Mike. You should have a winter-themed party. If Mom and Dad say it's okay to rent out the entire place, we can decorate it with balloons. I know your favorite cake is cheesecake, but you should get an ice-cream cake instead.

W: Those are all great ideas. Maybe I can even get a snow machine!

M: You can call the party "Patty's Wonderland". Maybe Mom will let us rent some winter animals, like deer and penguins!

W: Okay, don't get ahead of yourself. I don't think that would be possible.

M: Yeah, I guess you're right.

Text 10

M: Space Camp, Florida, which is right next to NASA's famous Kennedy Space Center, is a place where people can go to learn about space travel. Many activities are offered, which provide visitors with the excitement of being in space. One of the many attractions is the "Gravity Chair", which lets you see exactly how difficult walking in space really is! There is also a project which gives you the opportunity to build your own rocket. Then you can see the rocket take off, stop a few moments in the air, go down and land in less than two minutes! Camp programmes are designed for children and adults who want to experience an astronaut's life. The "Space Habitat" is a place where you can eat freeze-dried food and sleep in a special bed, just like a real astronaut! Regrettably though, children who are under nine years old are not allowed to take part in these programmes which last five days. The cost for adults is $ 875 and the kids $ 300 cheaper. There is a family ticket price of $ 1,500. It is a little expensive, but it is really worth it.
