听力部分录音稿

Text 1

M: Hello, Kate. Do you know how many students will go to the mountain?

W: Our monitor said that the whole class will go except Tom. He has something urgent to do.

That is, 20 students.

M: Oh, 18 students have been there by now.

Text 2

M: I don't feel too good. I think I might have overdone the sunbathing today.

W: You're not used to all this heat. So, what about dinner?

M: I don't feel like anything at the moment. I think I'll lie down for a while.

Text 3

W: Let's all go to the baseball game after work.

M: Why waste our money? The team is going to lose again.

Text 4

M: May I help you, madam?

W: Yes. Please bring me a simple sandwich and a cup of coffee. I'm in Room 203.

M: OK. It'll be ready in a minute.

Text 5

W: Everything here is so convenient. You can walk everywhere. Work, home, out to dinner. . .

M: And don't forget the movie theater on the ground level.

W: Yup, this apartment building has everything. I never have to leave.

Text 6

W: Oh, no, not again!

M: What happened?

W: I've just lost my work!

M: The computer crashed?

W: Yeah. It's the third time today. I keep doing the same thing over and over and over! It's getting really annoying! Maybe I need to ask others for help.

M: Aren't you saving your work?

W: I save my work at the end of each day. I didn't realize I needed to do it every 10 minutes!

M: Not even after the second time it crashed?

W: What are you saying?

M: I just think it'd be a really good idea to save your work frequently. It only takes a few seconds.

Text 7

M: Cathy, you look worried. Why?

W: According to the screen, our flight to Sydney has been delayed by 3 hours, so now we won't be boarding the plane until 2:00 p. m. But we have a meeting at night.

M: That shouldn't be a problem. The meeting with our customers isn't until 8 o'clock. Unfortunately we won't have time to take a tour of the city as we planned. I have been looking forward to it for a long time. W: What a pity! However, we can look around it next time.

Text 8

M: Well, you have a big family. Who are all these people?

W: Well, this is my mom, and here's my dad. That's my brother David with his wife and their kids.

M: They are lovely. How old are they?

W: Well, Bessie is ten and Paul is five. Do you have any nieces or nephews?

M: No, my family is pretty small, just me, my mom, my dad and my grandfather.

W: Do you have an aunt or an uncle?

M: Oh, yeah, I forgot about my uncle. He lives in Australia.

W: Would you like to have a big family?

M: I guess so. Perhaps when I'm married, I'll have three or four kids. How about you?

W: I don't want that many. It's hard work to look after a big family.

Text 9

W: Excuse me. We're doing a survey on the free time habits of British people. Can I ask you a few questions?

M: Sure.

W: Thanks. Right, first question. How often do you go to a bar or a pub?

M: Oh, not very often. I don't drink, but I sometimes go with friends.

W: OK. Do you do any sport?

M: Yes, I go swimming in the local swimming pool three times a week.

W: And how often do you go to the theater?

M: Hardly ever. About once a year, perhaps. I go to the cinema quite a lot, but not the theater.

W: OK. And do you ever do any gardening?

M: No, I haven't got a garden---I live in a flat.

W: What about holidays?

M: I normally have two holidays a year. One in summer and one around Christmas. I seldom stay at home. Sometimes I visit my aunt. Usually I go somewhere in Asia, like Thailand, India.

W: OK, that's all. Thanks a lot.

Text 10

M: And now it's time to tell all the new students at university about one of our most popular clubs. The University Film Club is a very friendly and welcoming group of people who meet up regularly to watch some of the latest films as well as some well-known classics from the past. We try to show as wide a variety of films as possible to suit everyone's taste, including action, science fiction and love stories. Being a member gives you the chance to see films in the university as well as in the cinemas in town. Members meet in the lecture theater in the Education Block, which is just behind the library. Films are shown on Tuesday and Thursday at 7:00 p. m. and entrance is free to members. We've also managed to agree a discount for film club members with all the cinemas in town. All members are given 50% off the entry price on any films shown in these cinemas. But it's not just about watching films. Once a month we hold a film quiz night. Other activities include trips to film workshops and informal discussions on film-related topics.

At the end of the year members all get together for dinner in town to say goodbye to the students who are leaving the university. It costs just $10 a year to become a member so if you're interested, call Janet on 4358 for more information.

第四部分 写作

第一节 (满分 15 分)

One possible version

With Gaokao approaching, many senior three students feel quite stressed, unwilling to spare time for sports.

I can well understand them and appreciate their devotion to their studies a lot. However, they just ignore the important role sports play. In fact, doing sports regularly benefits us in various ways. First, sports give us valuable practice in building up our bodies. Besides, by working out regularly, we'll keep refreshed, thus improving our study efficiency.

Therefore, I'm convinced that we should strike a balance between study and relaxation so that we can get well prepared for our future physically and mentally.
