One possible version:

Good morning, everyone! I feel delighted to share some of my views here. Being a better self, I think, means more than being excellent in study but being an all-round person.

To be a better self, we should recognize ourselves correctly by knowing our strengths and weaknesses. Then, based on self-recognition, we need to take action to enhance what we are good at and gain experience from our failures. It is also essential to improve our ability to communicate properly and address difficulties. I strongly believe that a better self can definitely lead us to a better future and let's make changes from now on.

Thank you!
