现在是听力试音时间。

M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we're a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club - we have about 50 members at the moment, but we're growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er... what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages - you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday - Spanish; Tuesday - Italian; Wednesday - German; and Friday - French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now you can have the first month free.

W: How can I help you?

M: I am looking for a place to live, near the university.

W: What size accommodation do you need?

M: Around 30 square meters. Either a studio flat or a one-bedroom flat. It depends on the price really.

W: Well, both are similar in price, though a studio normally requires less furniture. What would be your preference?

M: Hmm, I like an open plan, so I guess a studio flat would be my preference. Can you describe a studio to me?

W: Most certainly. All of our studio flats combine a bedroom, kitchen and living room into a single unit.

M: Does it come with a balcony?

W: Some do. In fact, we have one studio with a balcony near the university!

M: Perfect! Let's schedule a visit as soon as possible! This Saturday, OK?

W: It's called the MeBot. It can go to class, sit in your desk, take notes, and even answer the teacher's questions.

M: Wow, sounds great. And this MeBot kind of looks like you, too!

W: Yes, I made this MeBot to look closely like me, my body, my face. Some people even think it's me!

M: So, Annabel, what do teachers think of the MeBot?

W: I think most teachers would love to have a class full of MeBots.

M: All right. Well, Annabel. Are there any disadvantages to owning the MeBot?

W: Hmm, right now the main disadvantage is the cost. This MeBot would cost about two million U. S. dollars.

Hi, everybody, the summer vacation is drawing near. Here I introduce a project for the vacation. It's an exciting trip on a conservation experience in South Africa. It makes you fully involved in the role of a forest guard and help to promote the survival of African animals.

Joining the project as a volunteer gives you a wonderful experience. You can see some African animals. This conservation experience gives you the opportunity to work in the wild with animals. Main tasks are to track and monitor wildlife and take wildlife surveys. In addition to the leading role in the wildlife conservation, there is a visit to the local community, where you can contribute to a plan helping local school children.

The project lasts 15 days, including a one-day visit to the community every week, with weekends free for relaxation.

Welcome to sign up and join the project. Thank you!

Our School Clubs

Aiming to enrich students' after-class life, our school provides various clubs for us students. Around half of the students prefer Chinese Calligraphy and Painting Club while one fourth sign up the Pingpong Club. The number of students joining the Erhu Club and other clubs accounts for 10% and 17% respectively.

We benefit a lot from our school clubs. For one thing, there are many different kinds of clubs so that we can choose whatever we are interested in. For another, attending these clubs offers us good opportunities to improve our all-round abilities.
