书面表达:

When it comes to the qualities which determine success, some people assume that success requires fortune, willpower and so on. However, I insist patience is the most important.

As far as I can remember, I took up running to lose weight when I was young. But after I stuck to the daily routine for a month, I felt there was no apparent outcome and I started to hesitate and get impatient. Thankfully, my father noticed my low spirits and pushed me to be more patient. I accepted his advice, got back on track and carried it through. Gradually, running became part of my life and I became fitter.

Looking back, I would have ended up nowhere if I had lost patience and given up halfway. It's patience that makes a great difference in the end.
