Dear Mike,

I'm more than delighted to know that your school will have a "China Week" and you'll introduce Chinese papercutting to your teachers and classmates. Here is what I know about this ancient art of China.

Papercutting is an extraordinary art, which uses scissors to cut paper into beautiful shapes. They can be anything from flowers, animals to historical figures. The main bright color of red can provide a merry atmosphere, so they are found in wedding ceremonies and festivals, posted on windows, doors, walls and even mirrors. This art has a long history, reflecting the wisdom of Chinese people.

Hope one day you can come to China and get to know more about Chinese culture.

Yours,

Li Hua
