66. Celebrating World Rainforest Day

This week our school held a series of activities in celebration of World Rainforest Day, the purpose of which is to raise students' awareness of the importance of protecting rainforests.

To observe this special day, a rainforest-themed exhibition was set up in the school corridor to show students the amazing features of rainforests and explain the issues they face. Some volunteers also provided in-depth instruction in special classrooms, such as how to protect them from destruction.

The activities are significant, which can inspire everyone to strive for the sustainable and potential development of the rainforest.

67. 参考范文:

However, the next day, Ann was told a man named Peter recognized his lost dog. Tracy said Peter called the number on the flier. Ann told Tracy what had happened during these days and even started crying. At the same time, Ann showed great gratitude to the dog. And Tracy told Ann that Peter would drive to her house to pick up his dog this afternoon. Later, Ann told Thomas the owner had called to claim Riley, they needed to return it to the owner. Hearing that news, Thomas put his hands over his mouth. His eyes were wide open for he couldn't believe what had happened. However, he had to face the truth.

Peter's car came and Thomas stood silently beside his car. Ann took Riley from her home. Seeing that, Thomas' tears were rolling down his cheeks. Riley sat beside Thomas, sometimes ran around him and shouted: wom wom, which clearly showed that Riley didn't want to leave his friend, Thomas. At last, Thomas asked Peter, "Can we keep Riley?" Knowing this point, Peter thought about it for a moment, and then said, "Maybe my dog was supposed to find you, maybe you should keep it." Hearing that, Thomas ran around after Riley, obviously, they were full of joy.
