One possible version:

But Dylan continued to follow his dream. During his time at the shelter, Dylan had to go to work at the recreation center after school. He then hurried back to the shelter at 9 p.m. so that he could do his homework for two hours before the lights were off. The noise didn't bother him as he was focused on his study and the promise that he had made to his mother. All of these had continued until he finally finished the entrance exam and submitted the application to his dream college.

Weeks after his application, an envelope carrying good news arrived. It was the admission letter from the College of New Jersey! All of Dylan's hard work proved to be worthwhile. In great excitement, he rushed back to the shelter and handed the letter over to his mother, who cried out of joy. Going through homelessness let the family know that there will always be obstacles, but now with Dylan's great news, the future looks much brighter than before.

听力录音原文

Text 1

W: Hey, Robert, I have an extra ticket to the concert this Sunday afternoon. Do you want to come with me?

M: I still have a lot to prepare for the exam, but a break would do me good.

Text 2

W: Kevin, who will be the next president of the company?

M: Well, Sam is great, but he's not interested in that position.

W: Then I guess Mark will be the lucky one.

Text 3

M: I'd like the fish and chips with some salad, please.

W: Sorry, sir. What you want happens to be in short supply.

M: But it's on your menu.

Text 4

M: Hi, can I have two tickets for me and my friend?

W: Sure. It's $20 in total. Oh, do you have your student cards? There's a 50% student discount.

M: Oh, I'm glad we brought them.

Text 5

W: What suit color do you want?

M: I'm thinking of a brown suit.

W: Isn't that a bit boring and informal? Why don't you just get a black one? Black suits are always in fashion.

Text 6

W: Slow down. You're driving too fast.

M: But I told Nancy I'd pick her up at 8:45.

W: Relax. We still have half an hour, and we can definitely get to the airport before 9:15.

M: And then we can have breakfast together at the airport! There are many restaurants we can choose from.

W: Are you kidding? Foods there are always ten times more expensive. Besides, they aren't delicious at all.

Text 7

W: So, what seems to be the problem?

M: Well, I'm having trouble seeing things that are far away, and I get headaches sometimes when I look at my computer screen.

W: It sounds like you might need a pair of glasses. Now, cover your left eye and read the chart in front of you.

M: I'm afraid that I can't make out most of the symbols. Oh, I'm blind as a bat!

W: Don't worry. Just get yourself a pair of glasses and remember not to overuse your eyes. Take a break from the screens from time to time and look at some green plants.

M: Thanks.

Text 8

M: Honey, my company is holding a basketball game next month, and I'm thinking about joining. What do you think? I was the star player in high school.

W: Yeah, 25 years ago. Look, I just don't want you to have a heart attack running up and down the court.

M: So, What are you suggesting? Should I just abandon the idea? I'm not that out of shape.

W: You should at least have a physical exam before you begin. I mean, it has been five years since you played at all

M: Well, OK.

W: And you need to watch your diet, and try to eat more fresh fruits and vegetables.

M: Yeah, you're probably right.

W: And you should take up a little weight training. Oh, and you need to go to bed early.

M: Hey, you're starting to sound like my fitness instructor.

Text 9

W: Hi, Mike. I'd like to rent an apartment near the school. Do you know about any places for £700 to £800 a month?

M: Do you have any other requirements?

W: Well, I want to live with Linda, so we need two bedrooms. It's OK if there's no dining room or kitchen, but there should be a shared bathroom for us in the living room.

M: I think there are some places available. The first costs £700 a month, but it's about five kilometers from school and it's on a noisy street.

W: Oh, no. I can't bear the distance.

M: Here's another one that's about 800 meters away. The cost is €800 a month.

W: That sounds ideal. Can you give me the contact information? I want to have a look at it.

M: Since our class this afternoon has been canceled, how about I take you to the estate agency so you can learn more about it? And I think they can provide more choice for you.

W: That would be great!

Text10

Hi, my name is Anthony. My question for today is: Are you good at saving money? If your answer is no, don't you think it might be time to change? Saving money now gives you more money to play with down the road.

I save money just in case there's an emergency, or in case I lose my job. I feel comfortable when I know I've got no loan but at least three months safety net to support me until I can get back on my feet. To do so, I opened a separate savings account in addition to my regular bank account, and I always try to keep three months' wages in there. I had to use my savings recently for some bad luck. The other day, when I was driving, I ran into a big rock. It was expensive to get my car fixed. But I was lucky that I wasn't injured.

I have to admit that I don't have a high salary, but I'm slowly building my savings and making sure I have a little bit of money saved over each month. Well, my friends, do save some money as you enjoy your lives. By doing so, you will feel much more secure.
