M: Let's sell the house. There's too much work to take care of.

W: But I love this house. We raised four kids in this house and there would be no memories in a new house.

(Text 2)

W: Carl, can you give me a ride to the airport this afternoon?

M: I'm sorry but my car is currently being repaired at the car shop.

(Text 3)

W: I'd like to make an appointment to see Dr. Smith for an annual medical examination.

M: Well, the doctor will be available next Monday at 10:00 am. Please bring your insurance card.

(Text 4)

M: Hello, this is Jonson. I have a problem with my online order. I ordered red roses for my wife but she received sunflowers.

W: I'm sorry for that. I'll have red roses delivered to her as soon as possible.

(Text 5)

W: I'm sick and tired of the noisy neighbor upstairs.

M: His music is so loud.

W: Let's talk to the apartment manager again.

(Text 6)

M: Are there any special events going on tomorrow?

W: Yeah, there's an outdoor concert by the river tomorrow.

M: Oh yeah, I heard about that too. Let's go check it out.

W: Do you know what time it will start?

M: It will start at 1:00 pm.

W: Let's meet for lunch at 11:30 am. Afterwards we can head over there.

M: Perfect. I'll see you in front of the apartment at 11:20 am.

(Text 7)

M: I can't believe you are watching movies. The weather is great. Why not take a walk?

W: I don't like the hot weather. I'd rather stay indoors with the air conditioner on.

M: What else do you like to do besides watching movies?

W: I like to play computer games, read books and go shopping. My favorite is playing computer games.

M: So, when do you ever exercise? For example, go swimming or something else?

W: I go jogging at least twice a week.

M: That's pretty good. By the way, what will you do next Saturday?

W: I am going to go to the bookstore.

M: I'm having a party on Saturday night at my house. I hope you can come if you have time.

W: That sounds like fun. I'd like to.

(Text 8)

M: Hey, Ashley, are you interested in buying some used books for school? You can really save some money that way.

W: Well, what do you have?

M: I have a science book called Today's World, and I'm selling it for $30.

W: I won't spend so much on an old book.

M: But I bought it for $ 60, and the notes in the book can help you with the class.

W: What else are you selling?

M: OK, I have an English writing textbook for $ 14, a math book for $ 23, and a novel for only $ 2.

W: Um, I'll take the English book and the novel. I need both of them for sure. I think I'll buy other books. Teachers are always changing their minds about textbooks, and, what are those books? A cooking textbook?

(Text 9)

M: Next on the program we'll have an interview with Louise Hardy, who wrote a book about high-achieving teenagers. Louise, tell us about Tavi Gevinson, the very different girl.

W: Well, she was only 11 years old when she started a fashion blog called Style Rookie. On her blog, she posted photos of herself wearing unusual combinations of clothes and wrote about them.

M: I've seen them. They were quite odd.

W: Anyway, that attracted nearly 300,000 readers per day. Serious fashion magazines interviewed her and sent her to fashion shows in Europe.

M: Some people didn't believe she was as young as she was, did they?

W: No, one magazine printed an article saying the writer didn't believe Tavi was only 12. But she bounced back and continued blogging. In 2011, when she was 15, she started Rookie Magazine, an online magazine for teenagers. In less than a week, it had one million readers.

M: That's very impressive, isn't it?

W: Yes, it's fantastic. She employs about 50 writers and photographers—both adults and teenagers—on Rookie, and all this time she...

Wolfgang was left at an animal shelter by his owner. Many visitors came to the shelter for a dog. No one took Wolfgang because he was so big. Then, dog lover Erin McManus came to the rescue. She looked at Wolfgang and it was love at first sight. She took the overweight dog home and decided to help him lose weight. She put him on a diet. Wolfgang is now doing very well. He swims in the pool every day, goes on walks and exercises regularly. The weight is falling off. Erin is very happy with his progress. She makes him food. He eats turkey, vegetables and some bone. He has 37,000 fans on his online account. Erin said, "That boy touches my heart. It's so hard to say no to that face." Carl, a fan of him wrote, "His personality shines through. Hearing that you'd like to start to work out this summer holiday, I'm writing to recommend a gym with considerate service to you.

It takes about ten minutes to go there from our school by bike. With professional coaches and various kinds of fitness equipment, this gym is an ideal place for us to exercise. It opens from 8:00 am to 10:00 pm every day. If you apply for membership, you can get a big discount.

In addition, I'm also considering taking exercise. So if you like, we can exercise together. Looking forward to your reply.

Yours,
Li Hua
