第一节 应用文写作

Dear Smith,

I'm more than pleased to know that we are planning to open a Chinese study in our school. As an exchange student from China, I'm happy to give my suggestions.

Firstly, the study can be designed in traditional Chinese style, providing readers with a strong Chinese cultural atmosphere. Secondly, it may be helpful to offer some excellent books that reflect Chinese culture to help readers raise their reading interest and broaden their cultural horizons. In addition, holding regular reading exchange meetings or lectures on traditional Chinese culture will also make the study more appealing.

Hope my ideas will be helpful!

Yours sincerely,

Li Hua

第二节 读后续写

The angry wife asked him, "Where is that old thief? This is our goods." She was about to add more contemptuous comments on the old porter when she suddenly noticed that the man was glaring at her resentfully. "Madam, please calm down. Jack is not a thief!" retorted the porter, "He is actually terribly sick and isn't able to earn enough to even have a single meal of the day. Just now, on the way to deliver your goods, he was too weak to go any further in this heat of the noon. Despite falling down, he never forgot his promise. He handed me $ 15 and kept telling me to deliver them as fast as possible. ”

Upon hearing that, the husband had tears in his eyes and turned to his wife. “He is hungry and poor, but he is truly an honest man,” the husband admitted with a trembling voice. At that moment, the wife was struck dead with shame, heart beating painfully fast and banging against her ribs. How could she be angry with such a kind and responsible man? Like a child who made a mistake, she had no courage to look into her husband's eyes. Through all these unexpected things, it eventually dawned on her that honesty has no class and she should respect everyone regardless of their financial and social status.
