M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday Spanish; Tuesday Italian; Wednesday German; and Friday French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

W: Are they? I didn't know that.

M: Actually, two of my neighbors are coming round to my flat for coffee on Friday morning. Do you also want to come so that you can meet them?

W: Let me think. Today is Wednesday. Tomorrow I'm going to see my friend Luke. So yes, I should be free on Friday. What time should I come round?

M: Is 10:30 OK?

W: Yes, that sounds great, thank you. I'll make a cake. That's my country's traditional snack. It's called mawa cake. I'm sure that all of you will like it!

W: Well, there's quite a big sitting room and a kitchen. There are two bedrooms: a big one and a small one, and they are quite nice. It's a flat upstairs, on the top floor of the house. We live downstairs.

M: Uh... How much is it exactly?

W: Well, 200 pounds a week.

M: 200 pounds? That's too expensive.

W: Look, why don't you come round and see the flat? Then you can make up your mind. It's better than trying to talk about it over the phone.

M: Yes. May I see it now? I want to see if the price matches the flat.

W: Well, it's a bit difficult for me this morning. I've got to go out.

M: How about this afternoon? At about three?

第二节

参考范文:

We rushed to tell Mary's mother about the gold bars. Hearing the frightening things happened to us, she turned to us, with her eyes full of horror at that time. We told her we didn't expose his crime. She thought highly of what we had done. And then she called the police immediately and told them what had happened. The police came at once and caught the man. They also appreciate what we had done. They found the gold bars in his house and brought the man and the gold bars to the police station.

Several days later, a policeman came to Mary's house. At that time we were doing our homework in Mary's home and felt a little surprised. The policeman said, "Thank you for helping us catch the thief. Here is the reward for you." Hearing the words, we both felt delighted. We couldn't wait to know what the reward was, so we immediately opened the gift box. When we saw the gift, we were greatly surprised. They were some detective storybooks. We showed great gratitude to him.
