One Possible Version:

Dear Michael,

Our school virtual choir is recording a song "One World, One Voice". I'm writing to invite you to join us.

Our virtual choir offers a platform for students to sing together online. We just record and upload our voices. Then our videos get combined into one virtual choir. This song is intended to connect people with the same interest in music. It's a wonderful way for people to sing with one voice, which will surely show our music talents and promote cooperation with others.

I sincerely hope that we will perform together online soon. Looking forward to your reply.

Yours,

Lihua

W: Henry, can you tell me how to make friends? You are always cheerful and outgoing.

M: Ha-ha. You should be more confident and relaxed. Try to tell others about your feelings instead of remaining silent. (4)

Text 5

M: I'm so tired of taking a bus to our school. I've had enough of traffic jams.

W: I see. I used to ride my bike to school. But now, I live within walking distance of our school. I don't even need a bike. (5) I can lend it to you.

M: I'm sorry to hear that. How is she now?

W: Much better. I wish I could stay and talk with you, but here comes my taxi. Why don't we go out sometime?

M: Great! Call me anytime.

W: Oh, I forgot to tell you I had changed my phone number.

M: That's OK. I haven't changed my phone number since we graduated from our university. You can ring me up.

Text 7

M: Hello, Polly, could I put off my performance in the talent show? (9)

W: What? It starts at 2:30 p.m. (9) We only have one hour left.

M: Sorry. I just remembered that I have an oil painting class then. But I am the first one to perform in the show.

W: Well. Obviously, you can't do the two different things at the same time. Can you tell your teacher you'll take the class later?

M: I guess my teacher is on her way. I can sing the song at the end of the show. (8) Could you help me apply for it?

W: Yeah, that sounds perfect! The show will finish at 6:30 p.m. (9) Come back half an hour earlier than that.

M: That's settled. I can perform in the talent show right after the piano performance.

W: Bob, what did you do last night? (11) You usually enter the classroom early.

M: I stayed up late to watch the World Cup. (11) It was really amazing.

W: Oh yes. Even my dad watched the football game. (11) I dreamed that my dad said "Good shot!" My mom told me it was not a dream this morning.

M: How interesting! Does your dad play football?

W: He used to play football, but now he is busy with his work. I'm glad that he can burst out laughing.

M: Yeah. I felt excited too. You know, I am a member of our school team. We got together to watch the game last night.

W: That must have been a crazy and unforgettable night.

M: I couldn't agree more. Oh, it's nearly 7:50. Let's get ready for the English class. (12)

W: OK.

M: I see. But don't you feel bored while running? (15)

W: Nope. I often listen to music. (15) Sometimes I talk with my partner. And if possible, I try to find a different route or something interesting in the park.

Text 10

Hi! I have to say I've had the pleasure to see so much of the world. Six years ago on a trip, my mother made a video of me dancing freely in Thailand. (17) I put it on the Internet. Some friends started passing it around and soon millions of people watched it. How lucky I was! And since then, I've traveled to many countries on all seven continents, such as New Zealand, Britain and Canada. I love this kind of exciting life traveling around the world. (18) What's more, during the trip in Britain, I first met my husband. (19)

Quite a few people wanted to dance along with me, so I started inviting them to join in almost everywhere I went. When I dance with people, I see them smile and laugh. It makes me truly excited. People want to feel connected with each other. They want to be heard and seen, and they're curious to hear and see others from places far away. I share that idea in my book. It's exactly what drives me to travel. Now I'm working on the book about my journeys. I hope you will like reading it in the future. (20)
