W: Why don't we go on holiday twice this year? We can afford that.

M: Although I have two weeks' leave, I need one week to fix up the house.

W: Alright.

Text 2

M: Is this your first time in Turkey?

W: No, this is the second time. I first came here in June 2010. This time I arrived in early July, and I'll stay here for two months.

M: That's a long time!

W: Yeah.

Text 3

M: I have prepared those files for you, Mrs. Green. But I didn't have time to print them out.

W: No problem, Mr. Collins. I'll ask my secretary Miss Jones to do that.

Text 4

W: Pete, you've been to many art museums. So do you have a favorite painter?

M: Certainly. I love Picasso best who expressed his thoughts through his unique paintings. Oh, my goodness, he was really a genius.

Text 5

W: Is there a Chinese restaurant near here?

M: Yes, there is. I've been there once. The service is good and the price is reasonable, but the soup is too salty and the dumplings don't taste good.

Text 6

W: "Another day has gone. I'm still all alone..."

M: Cindy, will you please stop singing? I can't get the words out of my head. ⑥ I need to do my homework!

W: But I love the song, Arthur.

M: I can't stand this anymore! ⑦You can watch a film here until Dad comes back home.

W: OK, OK!

Text 7

M: ⑧I dropped the accounting class in college. Now I regret that. After graduation, I've been trying to find a job in accounting, but so far I haven't succeeded.

W: It's really difficult to find an ideal job, right?

M: Yes. If I had not given up the accounting class then, I would become an accountant now.

W: Well, don't be too hard on yourself. By the way, what do you think of your present job as a bank clerk?

M: ⑨Frankly, if I had known it was so boring, I would never have accepted it.

W: I know. ⑩Well, you know I have a friend who works in an accounting firm. He wants to hire an assistant to help him deal with accounting affairs. I would like to recommend you to him.

M: Really? Thanks a million. I owe you a meal.

Text 8

W: Bob, are you good at managing your money?

M: I'm good at saving money, I suppose. I often compare the prices of commodities. ⑪I also buy things on sale. What about you, Lily?

W: Oh, how I envy you! I wish I could save money as you do. Well, I don't buy anything on sale. I overlook the prices. I buy things I like.

M: So, how do you spend your money? Like eating, buying clothes, or renting a house?

W: ⑫Well, I don't have to spend money renting a house, because I live with my parents. I only need to buy some food. ⑫⑬But I'm crazy about buying clothes, where I spend $2,000 a month. You know, girls always like that.

M: You really should control yourself. ⑬I spend $1,500 less on clothes than you do every month.

W: I'm going to control my spending from next month.

Text 9

W: Hello, Alex. ⑭I've already ordered black tea for you. Where's Mike? Is he going to be late?

M: Hi, Susan. ⑮Mike just phoned me and told me that he couldn't make it.

W: ⑮Again? How could you bear that? He stood us up last time. I even booked a table in this teahouse.

M: ⑮ He keeps doing it, which upsets me a lot.

W: Have you ever talked about it with him?

M: Do you really think that's a good idea? I don't want to get too aggressive and have an awkward conversation.

W: ⑯ If you are unwilling to talk with him in person, perhaps you can think about writing to him. Just express what you really think.

M: ⑰ That sounds good. I'll give it a shot.

W: Great! Let me know how it would turn out to be.

Text 10

M: Larry Walters is among the relatively few who have actually turned their dreams into reality.

Larry was a driver, but his lifelong dream was to fly. ⑰ When he graduated from high school, he joined the Air Force in the hope of becoming a pilot. Unfortunately, poor vision disqualified him. So he had to satisfy himself with watching others fly the jets over his backyard.

Then one day, Larry bought a tank of helium and 45 weather balloons. Back in his yard, Larry tied the balloons to his lawn chair. He anchored the chair to his jeep and inflated the balloons with helium. ⑱ Then he packed some sandwiches and drinks.

When his preparations were complete, Larry sat in his chair and cut the anchoring string. ⑲ His plan was to lazily float up to a height of about 30 feet above his backyard, where he would enjoy a few hours of flight before coming back down.

When Larry cut the string, he didn't float lazily up—he shot up! He didn't level off at 100 feet, nor did he level off at 1,000 feet. He leveled off at 16,000 feet! Eventually, the hanging strings caught in a power line, blacking out a Long Beach neighborhood for 20 minutes. As soon as he hit the ground, he was arrested.

⑳ As he was being led away in handcuffs, a television reporter Robert Davies called out to ask, "Why did you do it?" Larry replied, "One can't just sit around and do nothing!"

Seriously, though ... What are you doing today to make your dreams come true?
