M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now you can have the first month free.

M: The silver necklace is only $15 this week; the gold one is $30.

M: Ah, there is a good shop not far from here. Go straight ahead and walk about three blocks. I can't remember the name of the shop, but you'll find it. It's near the police station. By the way, you know about the Town Guide? It's a thin book and has all kinds of useful information. You'll find one in any bookstore.

W: Really? What interesting things did you do there?

M: I helped get in some rice, take care of the fruit garden and drive the tractor.

W: Drive a tractor?

M: Yes. It was easy to learn. Did you go away for your holiday, Jane?

W: Oh, no. I just stayed at home. My mother has been in hospital. I had to look after her and help do some cooking and washing at home.

M: Oh, sorry. Where can I smoke, please?

W: I'm afraid it's not allowed in the whole building.

M: Oh dear! I wonder if I could have a glass of water.

W: Sure. Help yourself over there.

M: Thank you very much.

W: Don't you know smoking is not good for your health, young man?

M: Yes, I do. I tried many times to give it up, but I failed. When I go without it, I feel very bad.

W: Yes, it's hard to stop! But if you have the nonsmokers' health and well-being in mind, you might succeed.

M: You're right! Thanks very much. I'll try again to kick my smoking habit.

W: Yes, how could I not hear about it? It's all over the news.

M: But have you heard about Martin Harris?

W: No. Who is that?

M: Well, his story is in today's paper. Listen: "Trouble in the south as rains continues to fall and the water continues to rise. One man fights not only for his life but for others as well. Martin Harris is a local man who owns a small boat. With water levels rising above the tops of most houses in the area, people are in great danger. Harris has been using his boat to go around to help people in need. He picks them up in his boat and takes them to safety. His actions are winning praise from people all over the country. If any of you readers find yourselves stuck in the flood, the best advice is to try to get to a high, dry place before the water gets too high. If you cannot swim, find something that floats and hold on until you are found."

W: Wow, Martin Harris is an amazing man.

M: We can all learn a lesson from him.

W: I think I will write him a letter to thank him for his service.

M: That is a great idea. I am sure he will appreciate that.

听下面一段独白,回答第 17 至第 20 四个小题。现在,你有 20 秒钟的时间阅读这四个小题。

(Text 10)

M: Most people plan expensive vacations to Disneyland or ocean voyages with on board entertainment. But not many people talk about some of the smaller and cheaper sites when they talk about vacations. One example is Branson, a small town famous for country music. In the fall, it's full of college students. In winter, only locals fill the restaurants. But in summer, it's a fantastic hidden vacation spot. How did it become a tourist attraction? In 1912, a dam was built on the nearby White River, forming a new lake. This lake was in the middle of some beautiful mountains, and people started building vacation homes there. Soon, the main street featured country music shows. Vacationers began to visit from nearby states. Now, in addition to the live shows that made it famous, there is a tiger reserve, a golf course, helicopter tours, museums, hotels, campgrounds, lake voyages, and an amusement park. The town is still small, and far from city life. There's no major airport to bring in a large number of tourists, so they arrive by car or bus. Even though you can ride the Branson railway, it's just for touring the area. There is no passenger train service to the town.

第一节

参考范文:

The Elder I Want to Thank Most

Everyone has many elders to thank in their life, and the one I want to thank most is my mother. She's slim with big eyes and long hair. She's a considerate lady who cares me in every aspect of my life.

I am grateful to her for many reasons. Since I was born, she has always been there for me. She is my first life coach. It is she who teaches me to be a well-behaved and honest person. Although she's always busy, she has never ignored me. I dare say I couldn't be who I am today without her.

第二节

参考范文:

Then looking at Heather, Lucy had an idea. That night, she talked to her parents. "Mom, Dad, I want to sell my skates." Her parents looked at each other with their jaw dropping. "But you begged for those skates for months. What's going on?" Dad pointed out. Lucy gave a detailed description of the newcomer, Heather, including the facts that she doesn't have a leg and her family can't afford to buy her a prosthetic limb. As a result, she wanted to assist her to stand up. That night, they had a long talk and made an important decision.

The next day, Lucy and her parents contacted the school principal. Two days later came a piece of exciting news that the school promised to raise money for a new prosthetic limb for Heather. Lucy was more than delighted when she saw Heather walk into school on her amazing new leg a week later. Heather was wearing a big smile. She said, "Perhaps now I can join you in roller skate!" That night, Lucy hugged her mom and dad. "Thank you," she whispered. Her mom kissed her, "Oh, honey, it is your idea. We are so proud that you lighten up others' life."
