M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

M: I jumped for the basket and fell down.

W: That sounds really painful.

M: It was. I took some medicine twice a day and I'm recovering well. I'm starting to practice shooting these days.

W: Does it have three bedrooms?

M: No. There are two. The master room is quite large though. Maybe you could let children share the large room, and you and your husband could use the smaller one.

W: I suppose so. A three-bedroom flat will be difficult to find. I've been looking for one for over a week. The few three-bedroom flats that I have found are all extremely expensive. You said that the rent for this one would be 350 dollars a month.

M: Yes. It includes gas. So, as you can imagine, electricity and water are quite inexpensive.

W: This sounds better and better. But before I sign an agreement, I would like my husband to see it.

M: No, I am free only at weekends.

W: Then there are weekend courses. The course starts at 8 every Saturday and Sunday morning.

M: Sounds fine. What about the coaches?

W: We have very excellent coaches here and some of them have been teaching for 20 years.

M: Good. How many hours of training shall I have each day?

W: 3 hours in the morning and 2 in the afternoon. It ends at 6 pm.

M: Then how many people share a training car?

W: Usually three. And we have two coaches for each car.

(Text 10)

M: Today, we're reporting something very strange on the south coast. The water in Depesh Lake has turned into pink. Residents of Lawton have been worried, and many have called the police station to report it. The police arrived at the lake but didn't know what happened to the water. At first, they thought of chemical pollution, but they quickly realized this was no such possibility. Researchers from the Coastal and Marine Science Center have been looking into the issue. So far, they think the color might have to do with a large number of fish that have recently appeared in the lake. Researchers have caught a few of the fish and will be taking them to a lab for testing. Emergency workers are asking people to stay away from the lake, especially not to swim or fish in the water. We will be back tomorrow with more update information. This is the KMLC News. Now, over to Brittany Johnson with the weather report, followed by sports.

参考范文:

Dear Jason,

How is everything going? Glad to know you have a preference for Chinese dishes and would like to prepare one course for yourself. Here is a simple dish for you.

The dish is commonly cooked in China, which is both delicious and easy for beginners. To cook the dish, you just need to get one or two tomatoes and three eggs or so. Cut the tomatoes into pieces and break the eggs into a bowl and stir them quickly with chopsticks. After the oil in the pan is hot, you fry eggs first and then mix tomatoes with eggs and a little salt. With just a few minutes, a stir-fried eggs and tomatoes is ready.

To ensure your success, I attach a video for the dish to the E-mail. May you succeed!

Yours,

Li Hua

参考范文:

Another thing he found out was that Harold was previously a crane operator, but had to quit due to his health. As it turned out, Harold had a disease that's been eating away at him for years. Harold explained to Shawn that he was nearing the end of his life and that he was overjoyed to be in the presence of a crane again. He enjoyed seeing what he used to love to do for a living and never thought he'd ever be able to see or be around a crane again. Let alone be so close to seeing one in action. Shawn was saddened to learn that though Harold has two daughters and a son, they haven't visited him for the last seven years when he has been in a nursing home.

So, he decided that he would make a deal with Harold. Shawn told Harold that he would come sit and chat with him every day after his shift was over so Harold could judge him on how his crane work was that day. That way Shawn could learn from Harold. In exchange, Shawn would get the senior a black coffee each morning and lunch twice a week from wherever Harold wanted. In this way, Shawn had the opportunity to make this man's last days enjoyable. In Shawn's company, Harold was no longer lonely, while Shawn learned a lot from this former experienced crane operator. A little act of kindness can go a long way—and there's nothing more rewarding than brightening someone's spirits.
