It's a great honor to have this opportunity to share my speech here. While some people are content to live a life of comfort, the most passionate life begins at the end of your comfort zone. It can help you to understand the importance of growth in your lives.

Many people are unwilling to leave their comfort zone because of fear of failure. In fact, every moment in life is full of challenges and potential. Believe you can handle whatever life throws at you. Failure just proves that you're trying new things, growing and getting better.

Stop defining yourself and be brave to embrace new challenges!

However, Billy walked right up to them. Cautiously he knelt down by the weak baby fawn, seemingly familiar with the two creatures. The fawn suffering from dehydration and heat exhaustion lifted its head up with great efforts and eagerly lapped up the water cupped in my beautiful boy's hands. The mother deer stood by as if in guard. Not until the fawn licked the last drip of water did Billy move a little bit. I contained myself not to make a slightest sound, for fear of scaring them.

I strode to him and held him tight. As the tears that rolled down my face began to hit the ground, they were suddenly joined by other drops and more drops and more. I looked up at the sky. It was as if God, himself, was weeping with pride. The rain that came that day was a miracle, saving our farm, just like my boy saved a life.
