"Charming China" Photographic Exhibition is perfectly fantastic. It displays a wide variety of photos reflecting Chinese abundant and unique cultures, attractive scenery and a long history as well as great achievements in every aspect and so on. I am especially interested in tea culture, Peking opera, Chinese calligraphy and traditional handicraft. Through the exhibition, I am exposed to Chinese culture and have a deeper understanding of China and the Chinese people. It serves as a bridge between China and other countries to enhance each other's understanding. ### 【示例】

When I took off the weight belt and oxygen tank, I went back into the ocean to the dolphin. I felt so light and free and alive, and just wanted to play in the sun and the water happily and freely. The dolphin took me back out and played around in the water with me. I noticed that there were a lot of dolphins there, farther out. However, I did not feel scared at all. I relaxed, hugging it. How I wished to stay with him forever.

After a while it brought me back to shore. I was very tired at that time, almost collapsing and he made sure that I was safe in the shallowest water. Then he turned sideways with one eye looking into mine. We stayed that way for what seemed like a very long time, timeless I guess, staring into space, with personal thoughts from the past going through my mind. Afterwards, he made just one loud sound and went out to join the others. And all of them left.

W: Yes! Chinese pop, Korean pop... I even like some Jazz groups now. What is played tonight?

M: Um, it's classical music. (1) You know...violin, piano...

Text 2

W: I see you're in your gym shorts. Did you just come from basketball practice?

M: No, I was playing football with some friends. (2) Did you remember that I have a swim meet tomorrow, too? I need to buy a new swim cap.

Text 3

M: What is the price for a regular ticket from Los Angeles to Las Vegas?

W: Well, the regular ticket price is $15, but if you want to be more comfortable in a large sofa seat, you can pay $10 more for a business class ticket. (3)

Text 4

M: I don't think your earrings match your necklace. Your necklace is very fashionable, but your earrings are pretty old. (4)

W: Oh, but I like the style. Anyway, they match my dress.

Text 5

M: Your dogs are so beautiful! I've always wanted one like those, but I don't have enough room in my apartment.

W: Yeah, these guys are much larger than most dogs. Luckily, my backyard is big enough. (5)

Text 6

M: Can I buy some new clothes, Mom? Mine are so old!

W: Well, which clothes are broken? (6)

M: Two pairs of trousers. (6)

W: I'm so sorry, honey. We don't have enough money right now to buy any new clothes. But you're lucky that you have a mother who knows how to sew well! I'll fix up the worn-out clothes so they look fashionable and new. (7) I'll also make you a new jacket. Remember the one you liked at the store the other day? I think I can make a close copy of it. No one will know the difference!

M: Really? Thanks, Mom!

Text 7

M: It has been a hard winter for Europe. Maybe we should go somewhere else for vacation this spring. It looks like winter still has a hold on the places we wanted to visit. (8)

W: Is it still cold in England and Germany? It's almost April! (8)

M: Yes, and the weather forecast is for more storms. (8)

W: How about southern Spain?

M: That's just what I was thinking. Or the south of Italy. I don't think we can go wrong with either place.

W: Which would you prefer?

M: I think we should get air tickets to Italy this year. While we're there, we could also fly to some islands nearby. (9)

W: I love islands! I'm sure the weather will be beautiful, and spring brings so many wildflowers.(10)

M: Yes. We can always plan to visit northern Europe next summer. Autumn is also nice in those countries.

Text 8

M: That's a pretty thick book. It looks like a dictionary.

W: You're right; it does. But it is actually a novel. (11)

M: Wow! The writing is really small. This would take me a year to finish.

W: I've been reading for a while, (11) and I read pretty fast. So, you prefer shorter stories, then?

M: I prefer books on tape. With my schedule, I don't really have the time to sit down and read. (12)

W: I understand. That's why I do most of my reading just before bed. What do you listen to?

M: Books that inspire me and teach me new things. Most of the time, I listen to them when I'm driving. (13) Sometimes I listen to them when I'm on a long flight.

W: That sounds like a good idea. I could listen to one in the background while I'm cooking.

M: How about this? You recommend a book to me, and I'll try to read it your way. But you have to listen to one of mine.

W: Deal.

Text 9

W: This museum is huge! It would take three days for us to go through it. How much time do we have? (14)

M: Only six hours until we have to meet our classmates at the front of the building. (15) Then we will take a bus to the hotel and get ready for dinner at a restaurant.

W: What a busy schedule! That doesn't leave us much time here. We don't have any free time to come back after today, do we?

M: We're leaving New York in two days, (16) you know. And tomorrow, we'll go on a boat tour and then attend an evening Broadway show.

W: Too bad! This museum is my favorite spot in this city. Let's not waste any more time. I want to see as much as we can.

M: Well, I will walk around with you for a few hours, but then I'm going to drink some coffee in the cafeteria. I'm not very interested in art as you are.

W: I'm crazy about the sculptures here. And the old paintings are like pictures from my dreams! I would rather stop eating than miss the chance to look at them. (17)

Text 10

Welcome to Water World, the largest water park in California. Water World is divided into three sections: Lakeland, Rainforest River, and Oceana. Lakeland is a great place for the whole family. We can choose water tubes to slide down or try our "Waterfall". Children must be 48 inches tall to ride alone, (18) and at least 42 inches with an adult. If you are a real adventure seeker, you can't miss Oceana. It is the biggest part of our park, (19) and has over 24 rides. Our newest part is called "The Sink" and is exactly what you might imagine. Slide around and around a huge basin, and fall 15 feet through the bottom into a large pool. Swim to the deep end, and enjoy our most visited attraction: the wave pool. (20) Waves start every 45 minutes and reach up to 6 feet tall. Lastly, at 10:00 and 12:00, we have a special performance. You can watch the dolphin and sea lion shows on the high seas. It's all here at Water World!
