附: 录音原文

(Text 1)
M: I'll probably see you at the library after school tomorrow.
W: Really? But you usually play basketball on Saturdays, don't you?
M: Yeah, but we're not playing this Saturday. We always take a week off for final exams.

(Text 2)
W: Did you enjoy the trip to the museum last week?
M: Yes, it was good, thanks. We saw some interesting things, and I found out some useful information for my history project. I just wish we'd had longer time to look around the museum.

(Text 3)
M: Hey, Jennifer. You're planning to go to Steven's party this weekend, aren't you?
W: No. I really want to go, but I'm going to visit my aunt in Chicago with my parents. And we're driving the whole way!

(Text 4)
M: What are you making?
W: Just a fried egg. Mum and Dad have gone out, so we have to get our own lunch.
M: I thought we were eating together first.
W: They decided to leave earlier than planned.

(Text 5)
M: Hey, Annie, that dress looks really nice on you. Is it new?
W: Yeah, I got it on sale at George Brothers Department Store. I never miss their sales.
M: Well, you made a good choice. That color looks great.

(Text 6)
M: Hi, Emma. How was your weekend?
W: Oh, my cousin came to visit and we went to the beach. But mostly we just relaxed, reading books and enjoying the good weather. You'd have been terribly bored!
M: Yeah, I do prefer a more active weekend.
W: Well, I needed the rest. School has been so busy with exams lately, and I felt tired. The weekend was just what I needed. Now I've got plenty of energy to get back to studying!

M: Me too.

(Text 7)
W: Can I help you?
M: Yes, I really like this sweater. Do you have it in a medium?
W: Let's see... we have it in red and green in a medium.
M: No, I want it in black.
W: Just a minute, I'll go and check. Here you are. A black medium. Do you want to try it on?
M: No, thanks. I'm sure it'll be fine. How much is it?
W: $43.20.
M: It says 40.
W: Yes, but that doesn't include sales tax—that's 8% extra.
M: Oh, OK.

(Text 8)
M: So, do you think you'll go back to the Philippines?
W: I hope so. For our final project, we held a big conference with lots of other volunteer groups.
M: And what was the goal of the conference?
W: Well, everybody shared ideas of getting more people involved in volunteer work. For me, it was great to feel part of a group. I guess I've always been a kind of reserved and cautious person. I really wanted to change that part of my personality, to try to be more outgoing and sociable. It was the best thing I've ever done.
M: I really admire you for doing this kind of work.
W: Oh, thank you. By the way, it's not too late to join our next trip to the Philippines. We're going again next March.

(Text 9)
W: Hey, Paul, guess what? I'm going to visit Quebec next summer. I have to go to my cousin's wedding, but I also plan to stay a while and do some sightseeing.
M: That's great, Mary. But do you mean the province of Quebec or Quebec City?
W: I guess I mean the province. The wedding is in Montreal, so I'm going there first. I'll be there for about four days.
M: Montreal is great. The St. Lawrence River runs right through the middle of the city. It's beautiful in the winter.
W: Wow. And how about the language? Can I get by with English?
M: Well, people speak both French and English there, but you'll hear French most of the time. So you'd better practice your French before you go.
W: Okay, I'll do that. Now, what about Quebec City? I'm going to visit a friend from college who lives there now.
M: It's a beautiful city. Very old. A lot of the buildings have been nicely restored. Some of them were built in the 17th and 18th centuries. You'll love it there.

(Text 10)

Each day we offer three separate walks suitable for all skills and fitness levels.

We also pride ourselves on our friendly service, particularly important for the increasing numbers of people who choose to holiday alone. Entertainment is laid on nearly every night with tour leaders on hand to organize lectures, games, quizzes and respond to any special requests from guests.
