M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now you can have the first month free.

When they told me it was almost 50 years old, I thought it was going to be boring, but it was one of the best movies I've ever seen. I couldn't take my eyes off the screen. I laughed. I cried. I got angry.

M: Wow! Now I want to see it.

W: I'm dying to watch it again. Hey, why don't we get together and have a party and we can see the movie together?

M: That's a great idea. I can bring some friends if that's OK.

W: I'd like to go to Florida. I've always wanted to visit Orlando.

M: We should get on the Internet and check flight schedules as soon as possible. I remember a ticket costs $500. They may still have that promotion where a second person flies for half price. That means the four of us can go for the cost of three.

W: Orlando, here we come! But we won't spend the whole two weeks there, will we? I heard St Augustine was cool. And there's Daytona Beach where you can drive on the beach.

M: Your mother and I will take care of the driving and make hotel reservations so you and Tim will plan the sightseeing. Is that a deal?

W: Yeah! Great!

M: Only one rule. Each person gets to take one suitcase.

W: But I have a lot of clothes I want to take.

M: I'll help you pack.

W: Ladies and gentlemen, we have an announcement for all passengers leaving for Western Europe. All flights have been canceled because of a large cloud of smoke that has traveled from a volcano. If you were planning to fly to Northern Europe today, please check with your airline to see if your flight is still scheduled to take off. We aren't sure when the planes to Western Europe will be rescheduled. There is no rain in the forecast right now, but there is a chance that some strong winds from the east will clear the skies tomorrow. We apologize for this delay. Unfortunately, the airlines cannot provide you with a hotel for the evening, but we hope you'll be comfortable in our airport. There are small cupboards with locks just outside each security check. You can store your luggage safely and freely. There is a quiet zone on the third floor with chairs that open out to make small beds. If you're from the Dallas area, please pay special attention to your cellphone. You will receive a message from your airline if your flight gets scheduled to leave.

参考范文:

Dear Eric,

How is everything? I'm so glad that you show great passion for the activity whose theme is "Building a Harmonious Campus". I'm writing to share some changes of our school after the activity with you.

First of all, many of us can care about each other and help those who need help. More importantly, all of us are honest and trustworthy in our daily lives. Secondly, it is obvious that everyone can make peace when conflicts happen among the students. Last, what impresses me most is that everyone can save energy and keep the campus clean and tidy. For myself, I study harder and try my best to do little things. In a word, a small contribution from everyone makes a big difference.

Yours,
Li Hua
