M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

M: Oh, no, I don't want to interrupt you. I can wait. I'll come back later.

W: I'm afraid it's going to be a long wait! I'm working on my history paper.

M: History paper? I thought you'd finished it. Didn't you turn it in on Friday?

W: Yes, but the professor just returned it to me. I was told to add ten more pages.

M: Wow. It sounds so good. How long did you stay there?

W: Well, I went there on July 5th and came back on August 15th.

M: What about the course?

W: I think the course was well organized. The teachers were nice. They taught us to listen, speak, read and write in English, but it mostly focused on speaking. One interesting thing I found was that the English classes were different from ours because they were very free. You can sit anywhere you like in the classroom. You can ask the teacher questions at any time during the class, and you are welcome to share your ideas with the classmates and teachers. I really enjoy this kind of class.

M: How interesting! Maybe our teachers should try that.

M: Hi, Rose. You've been looking for houses for months. Can't you find one?

W: Well, I should be careful about choosing one. It's a big step to buy a house. I'd rather take time now than be sorry later.

M: That's right. There're a lot of houses for sale near the university.

W: I've been there, very beautiful houses, but I prefer old but big houses. We need lots of rooms, you know. And I think I can get a better buy on an old house.

M: However, a cheap house means less modern conveniences. Why not get a new one?

W: Well, Jeff can rebuild the old one. You know, he's so skillful. Some of the new houses now have very small rooms. I wouldn't want to spend the rest of my life in them.

M: Aren't you tired of keeping so many rooms clean every day?

W: Not at all. Cleaning is a pleasure for me. Oh, here comes my bus. Bye!

听下面一段对话, 回答第 14 至第 16 三个小题。现在, 你有 15 秒钟的时间阅读这三个小题。

M: You should do some exercise every day. That is the best way to keep you healthy and strong.

W: You know, I don't want to move about at all.

M: You'd better not watch too much TV. Recently, dancing machines have been popular in our country. I suggest buying one.

W: What is the dancing machine?

M: Oh, you may see one in shopping centers. It's easy to learn how to use it. What you ought to do is dance on such machines with loud disco music, stepping forward and backward, left and right according to the directions on TV, as if you are really dancing.

W: That sounds interesting! But is it useful to help me keep fit?

M: Sure. When you finish dancing, you'll be out of breath.

W: Where can I find one?

M: You may go to the Friendship Store.

W: Is it expensive?

M: I don't think so. It only costs $900.

W: All right. I'd like to buy one.

A Meaningful Theme Class Meeting

Last Friday, our school held a meaningful class meeting, whose theme was “Be Grateful to Parents, Cherish Life”. Its purpose was to let us students know life doesn’t only belong to ourselves and that we should cherish life.

First, it started with a poem called Life, which made us reflect on what life is. Then, the host played some videos about how important it was for us to have a healthy life. Next, a short play about parent-child relationship was performed, through which we got an insight into our parents’ love for us.

As expected, not only does it help us raise the awareness of cherishing life for the people who love us, but helps us get along well with our parents.

第二节

参考范文:

Without hesitation, Reeves sprang from five rows back. Rushing to the driver, Reeves immediately held the steering wheel and stepped on the brakes carefully and slowly to prevent any injuries among his classmates. Then he immediately checked on the unconscious driver. Some students put their hands over their mouth, and their eyes were widely open for they couldn’t believe what had happened. Immediately after, Reeves shouted at his fellow students for someone to call the emergency services. It was Reeves’s quick thinking that save everyone’s life. No students were hurt.

Emergency services arrived at the scene in no time. The police and doctors responded very quickly, tended to the driver, and the students were safely loaded onto a different bus to make their way home. All the students were in a good mood at the moment, just like the white clouds in the blue sky. People praised Reeves’ quick thinking, which avoided a disaster. The actions of the student who helped stop the bus made all the difference today, and we could not be prouder of his efforts.
