书面表达 (答案略)

听力原稿

1. 【原文】W: Hey, I didn't see you at the party last night. What's wrong?
M: Yeah, I failed my final exam so my dad didn't allow me to go and I had to revise my notes.
2. 【原文】M: What exactly are you looking for?
W: I'm looking for a book with the 19th-century European paintings in it.
M: Is it the book on your left, the one with the yellow cover?
W: Yeah, this is the book I want. Thanks a lot.
3. 【原文】M: Where did you stay last summer when you travelled in Xiamen?
W: I stayed in a family hotel near the sea.
M: Why did you choose to stay in that hotel instead of a five-star hotel?
W: It is comfortable, and all the reviews online about the hotel are positive.
4. 【原文】M: Hey, Maggie. Eggs are still in the frying pan. They're going to be burnt.
W: Oops, I totally forgot that. Can you turn off the gas? I'm busy with these dirty clothes.
5. 【原文】M: Put on the helmet, please.
W: Do we need to put on the jackets, too?
M: Go ahead if you want to protect your clothes. Now, please watch your step.

W: Thank you. Is the production line fully automated?

M: Well, not fully automated.

6. 【原文】M: Have you figured out how much money we shall spend?

W: Oh, yeah. The total amount is no less than 13,000 RMB, according to our route.

M: What? That's too much.

W: Sit down. I'll show you the list of our financial budget. First of all, it is nearly 8,000 RMB that we should spend on transportation.

M: Ah, the transportation fee always takes a great part in the budget.

W: Then we must pay a large amount of money for the hotel. But if we want to save money, we can choose a hotel which is not so good.

M: Hmm, what I'm fearful of is that the living condition will be terrible once we choose a cheaper hotel.

W: Then we can limit the cost of food.

M: I agree. We can choose less expensive restaurants.

7. 【原文】W: Colin, you got the highest score on the English exam again. How I envy you!

M: You did make progress this time, especially in reading and writing parts.

W: But I'm still dissatisfied with my spoken English. It's my biggest problem.

M: Cheer up, Tina. Let me help you find the right way to learn English. When you're studying a language, the keyword is patience. It's of the greatest importance, because nobody can master a language all at once.

W: Oh, yeah. But what am I supposed to do? Find some foreign friends or go abroad to learn it?

M: Not exactly. You can just make full use of every morning to practice English.

W: Should I get up earlier every day?

M: You don't have to do so. Actually, there are indeed many chances in the morning that you can grasp to learn English. For example, you can listen to English news while you are dressing and washing. At the same time, you can imitate and speak English loudly. You need to take every opportunity to learn.

W: Practice makes perfect, right?

M: You said it.

8. 【原文】M: Hi, Janice. How have you been recently?

W: All in all, it's not bad. But there's one thing that makes me feel a bit worried.

M: What happened? Tell me about it, if you don't mind.

W: Well, I went to visit my grandma last Saturday. You know, she is in her 80s. I've asked her many times to live with me, or I can find her a good nursing home. But she prefers to stay in our hometown.

M: Are you worried about her being alone?

W: Yes. I only meet her twice or three times a year.

M: Well, I think you should respect her choice. Have you ever imagined what the life would be like if she lived with you? You go to work during the day and leave her alone at home. She knows nobody here but you. And she doesn't know how to take the elevator, can't speak Mandarin...

W: Oh, I didn't think from her point of view. Thanks, Alan. I won't persuade her any more, but I can teach her how to use the smartphone next time I visit her.

9. 【原文】 W: I can't believe this! I thought I was going to die back there! How dare you take me out to the woods? Let's go back to the city. I need malls and roads!

M: It was only a snake, and it was like 30 meters away from us. Besides, we're only out here for the weekend. How about getting back to the tent? I'll make you some hot chocolate.

W: Is it Starbucks hot chocolate? You know I only drink brand name products. I can't believe I let you trick me into this! I can't even get a phone signal out here!

M: Is this your first time outside the city?

W: Of course not! I travel all around the world with my family, meeting friends. We go to beautiful places with beaches, not dirty trees and creatures! My father does business all around the world and he flies us around in his private plane. I should be in Belize spending a vacation with my family right now!

M: This is much cheaper. I'm sorry you don't like it, but maybe when the stars come out and we have a nice fire to sit around, you'll appreciate it.

10 【原文】 W: Do you love math? If you do, why not go to take part in the Noetic Learning Math Contest? The contest is a problem solving contest for students in grades 2 to 8. It takes place once every half a year. The goal of the competition is to encourage students' interest in math, to develop their problem solving skills, and to inspire them to do well in math. During the contest, students are given 45 minutes to solve 20 problems. Many problems are designed to challenge students and to enrich their problem solving experience. Teachers in any public school or private school are encouraged to ask their students to take part in the contest. The top 10% of all students in the contest in each grade will receive "National Honor Roll" medals. The highest scorer of each team will receive a "Team Winner" medal. The top 10% of teams will receive "Team Achievement Plaques(奖章)".
