Wang Wei: The First Place in the English Oral Test

Wang Wei won the first place last Saturday in Wuxi Senior High Students' English Oral Test and has been qualified to compete in the final test in our province next month.

Wang Wei developed his interest in English as a little boy. In his spare time, he enjoys reading and singing English songs. He even won the first prize in telling China's stories in English.

We are proud of him and wish him a perfect performance in the final test next month.

参考范文:

It was a few weeks later when Gabby saw someone else from her school picking up litter. When the girl saw Gabby, she excitedly came over wearing a badge with three G's on it. "I was inspired by your videos," she said. "I hate litter too, so I set up the 3G Club!" This stood for "Garbage Girl Gabby", turning the nickname into something positive. The next two weeks, 40 members joined their club. The town had never looked so clean! One day, the tired Gabby went home merrily and fell asleep quite early. (79 words)

Soon Gabby's mum woke her up and told her to come quickly to the TV. On the screen was the famous TV presenter who made the documentaries about animals that Gabby loved to watch. He was talking about the problem of waste and what different groups around the world were doing to offer help. He mentioned the 3G Club and thanked Gabby and the other club members for showing people that even a small action can make a great difference. Gabby was very happy and proud. (71 words)
