一、听力技能录音材料

Text 1

M: Why not send it by air mail? It will be much quicker and not much more expensive than ordinary mail.

W: Sounds good. But there's really no need to waste money, right?

Text 2

M: Why are you still here? Don't you have a meeting at 8:30 this morning?

W: Oh, don't worry. It's five past eight now. I still have enough time.

M: But that clock is twenty minutes slow.

Text 3

M: How do you like the party?

W: Oh, I'm having so much fun. I hope it will last longer.

M: Actually, I was coming over to tell you I'm going to leave now. I don't know anybody here but you.

W: Oh, I'm sorry. I should have introduced you to more people here.

Text 4

W: My Fair Lady is on this Saturday afternoon. Shall we go and see it?

M: I am afraid I can't. I have to prepare my math lesson.

W: Do you mean you'll be busy from morning to afternoon?

M: Well, the math exam is next Monday, you know.

Text 5

M: What are you doing with two computers on your desk? You can't possibly be using both.

W: Of course, I can. It's something I learned from reading about Bill Gates. I've found that I can increase my productivity like this.

Text 6

M: West Restaurant. May I help you?

W: Yes, this is Lisa Smith. I'd like to book a table for my parents and me on this Saturday.

M: When will you come?

W: We'll come around 7:00 p.m and leave around 8:00 p.m.

M: OK.

W: By the way, can I get a table by the window?

M: Let me check. Sorry, all the tables by the window have been booked. There are only two at the gate left.

W: OK, thanks.

Text 7

W: Tim, what are you thinking about?

M: Hi, Diana! I'm thinking about doing some sports in the gym.

W: Do you want to lose weight?

M: No, I want to keep fit.

W: So what sport do you want to do?

M: I like playing basketball. But I hurt my knees last year. Maybe I can try swimming. Could you go to the gym with me?

W: I really want to, but I'm too busy with my work now. Why don't you ask Susan? She told me yesterday that she wanted to go swimming.

M: Good idea. I'll give her a call tonight.

Text 8

W: Excuse me, Dr Devlin. We are planning to have a party next Friday. Which room could we use? We are expecting around 300 people. Dr Diaz suggested the Pine Room, but there are too many used books inside and it can only hold 250 people. What would you suggest?

M: One moment please. I would suggest the White Room. It can hold 350 people at the most. Besides, it was newly decorated. Is it OK?

W: Sure. Thank you.

M: What time will you need it?

W: I believe that 6:00 p.m to 10:00 p.m. would that be OK.

M: OK. It's all yours during those four hours.

W: Thank you very much. Oh, Dr. Devlin, would you please join us in the party on that day?

M: I'd like to, but I'm afraid I can't. I have to work on a speech with Dr. Miller that night.

Text 9

M: Overseas Travel Agency. May I help you?

W: Yes. Jason and I are planning a vacation to an island for wedding anniversary. Do you have any recommendations?

M: Certainly. Off the top of my head, I would suggest the island of Bali.

W: Why Bali?

M: At this time of year it rains a lot in most places, but it is the dry season in Bali. Also, there are many excellent restaurants and hotels to choose from. Plus! Bali is known for its surfing and diving. And I must say that the shopping is surely great.

W: That sounds amazing! Jason loves to dive and I love to shop and eat. Can you tell me how much it will cost for the two of us?

M: It will take me some time to get the extra price, so I will call you in two days.

W: Thank you. Will we have to pay for it right away?

M: I'll need your ID card to make a reservation, but you won't actually have to pay for it until you get there.

W: That sounds great.

Text 10

I've shared a two-bedroom and two-bathroom apartment with my roommate for two years. He is moving to Australia and I posted a "roommate wanted" ad in the local newspaper. Finally, I got a call from Andrew. He seemed normal on the phone and would stop by today to see the apartment. When he got there, I showed him around. The apartment has a pretty large living room with a large couch and a TV. It doesn't have a dining room, but it does have a kitchen. My room is the master bedroom with a connecting bathroom. The other room is the guest room with the bathroom in the hall. I told Andrew that he could use any of the furniture that my former roommate left behind. I also told him that he could use any of the appliances — the refrigerator, the microwave oven, and the coffee maker. Andrew said he liked the place. We agreed on the rent and he signed up. It was settled. What a relief that I wouldn't have to talk to strange people!

第一节应用文写作

Dear Caroline,

I'm glad to tell you that our school has founded Online Travel Club to help support the upcoming Chenzhou Tourism Exposition. I'd like to invite you to join it.

The theme of the club is to explore Chenzhou's unique culture and natural landscape. Activities will be held online, which is convenient for us all. We'll discuss various travelling topics to broaden our vision and add to our knowledge. Besides, every club member has the responsibility to recommend well-known tourist attractions to others. In this way, we'll have rich sightseeing resources and more choices when travelling. What's more, the club is also a good place to share our travelling experience with each other. We would be honored if you could join us.

Looking forward to your reply!

Yours,
Li Hua

第二节 读后续写

Paragraph 1: I looked around, but I couldn't see Larry and Tony. The smoke was so thick that I couldn't see more than a few feet around me. I yelled for the other guys. All I could hear were the trees exploding. It was terrifying. I reached in my pocket for the cellphone again. However, it was gone. I must have dropped it somewhere. That phone was my only connection with the outside world. But there was no time to look further. Smoke filled my lungs and I fell to the ground.

Paragraph 2: When I woke up, I found myself in a helicopter. "He's alive!" somebody shouted. One rescuer held a phone to my ear. "Everything's going to be okay," Ande said in a gentle tone. "I love you." The rescuers explained that Ande had called them for help. They added that Larry and Tony were safe, too. The helicopter took us to the nearest hospital. As the helicopter lifted off, I took one last look at the burnt trees. But in the blackness I saw the hope, the promise of new growth.
