听力部分录音稿

(Text 1)

M: Mum, I'm leaving for Vancouver tomorrow at 2:00 pm.

W: Honey, there is construction on the road on the way to the train station. Maybe you should go one hour earlier. That leaves extra time in case of bad traffic.

(Text 2)

M: The car won't start. I think we're out of gas. Maybe we can catch a bus to get to the restaurant.

W: There aren't any buses here. Let's walk. It's not far.

(Text 3)

M: Can you help me with my maths homework? I can't do it.

W: Sure. How about tomorrow morning? I've got a French class this afternoon.

M: OK. Thank you!

(Text 4)

W: Let's watch a documentary about volcanoes. But I'm afraid it's too bright in here. Could you please turn off the light while I turn on the TV?

M: OK. And I'll bring some snacks.

(Text 5)

W: Wow! Look at all these different places to eat! There are so many choices. What are you going to have, Dan?

M: I'm so hungry. I want a burger and a large order of fries.

(Text 6)

W: There they are! At last I've found them. I've been looking for them everywhere.

M: What? Your keys? You're always losing them.

W: I know, and I really thought I'd lost them for good this time.

M: Why don't you make sure you put them in the same place? Then you'd have the satisfaction of finding them whenever you want them.

W: Good idea.

(Text 7)

W: Hi, Tim. What are you looking at?

M: Oh, I've been reading some online reviews. I want to buy a digital camera, but I'm still not sure which one to get.

W: That's the problem with buying one from the Internet. You can't try something out before you buy it. Perhaps you should go to a store.

M: It's a shame that the local shop has such a small range of cameras. There's the mall, I suppose.

W: Oh, no, I wouldn't go there at this time of year. It'll be very crowded. The shop down the road is a lot better now than it used to be. There are new owners. You should give it a try.

M: Okay. Thanks for your advice.

(Text 8)

W: Now, breathe in and out. Good. I'm going to take your temperature. OK, that seems normal. Now lie down, please. If I push here, does it hurt?

M: Ow! A little bit. Do you think it's my heart?

W: Your heart? Why would it be your heart? You're sixteen years old.

M: My mum says I eat the wrong things and I eat too quickly. She thinks I'll have a heart attack.

W: I see. Well, your heart is fine. I think you've got indigestion. But your mother's right. You need to eat more slowly and you should drink more water. I'm going to give you some medicine. And you should come back for a check next week.

M: Aren't you going to do a blood test?

W: No, I don't think that's necessary.

M: Oh, good, thank you.

(Text 9)

M: Hi, you must be Sarah. I can tell from your picture. I'm Michael. Finally we meet! So we're going to be classmates this semester!

W: Yes, I recognize you from your photo, too! I'm so glad to meet you in person. I see from your T-shirt that you like baseball. I'm a big fan, too!

M: Well, the T-shirt was a present from my brother, who's a baseball player. Look at the back—it has a photo of all the players on his team. They won the city championship this summer.

W: That's great. I love to watch baseball. What about you? Do you play a sport?

M: Yes, I play tennis. What else do you like to do?

W: Well, what I like to do best is dance. I'm studying classical ballet, but I also like to dance to pop music.

M: Cool. Do you want to check out the local clubs this weekend?

W: Oh, yeah. And the restaurants, too. Speaking of that, I'm hungry!

M: Me too. How about trying the place up the street? I'd like to get a good hamburger.

W: Let's go!

(Text 10)

W: Hi, everyone! My name's Lily and I'm a swimmer. I'm talking to you today because I want to encourage you to take up swimming. It's a great sport. It isn't expensive to do and it keeps you healthy. I learnt to swim when I was about five. I didn't learn it at the local leisure centre, but in my uncle's pool. When I started primary school, I joined a swimming club and I went swimming twice a week. I had a lovely trainer called Anna. She encouraged me to enter competitions and I did quite well. Nearly every Saturday a group of us from the swimming club went to other towns to have competitions. That was fun. After I'd won quite a lot of competitions, I moved into the advanced class at the club and I had a trainer who was once an Olympic winner! He wanted me to receive training every day after school for an hour and a half. My parents didn't agree because I needed to spare some time for my school work. But they let me go three days a week. I love swimming and I would really recommend it to everyone.

短文改错

I'm Li Hua, chairman of our School Student Union. I'm awfully sorry to hear that a ~~horribly~~ earthquake unexpectedly hit your ~~horrible~~ hometown last week.

I want to take this opportunity to send my deepest ~~sympathetic~~ to the people suffering from it and to all those ~~whom~~ have lost their loved ones. ~~Thought~~ about your present situation, and we cannot wait a ~~minute~~ to make every bit of our effort to offer our help to you. Action has ~~been~~ taken since the disaster occurred. Effort to ~~bring~~ the areas ~~striking~~ by the earthquake back to life has quickly started. Chinese rescue teams have headed ~~at~~ your hometown to lend ~~the~~ hand.

I'm fully convinced that everything will be fine and you will get your city back on ~~it~~ feet soon.

书面表达

One possible version:

Dear editor,

Nowadays, I find that ~~some~~ people who enter museums or galleries mainly use their mobile phones to take pictures of the artworks. They don't intend to ~~stay~~ for long to watch and appreciate them with their hearts or in a thoughtful way. With the digital age coming, it is a common phenomenon. Thus, I propose people take more time to ~~enjoy~~ the works of art with their eyes and hearts instead of taking more time to photograph them.

In my opinion, not only can appreciating artworks attentively let us ~~know~~ the ideas and values they convey, but also it can improve our aesthetic taste and enrich our spiritual world.

Yours sincerely,
Li Hua

评分标准
