M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday Spanish; Tuesday Italian; Wednesday German; and Friday French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

M: Yes. That's a big problem in many cities.

W: At the time, my husband was a teacher. He recognized that a lot of students were having trouble at school. They needed help with their homework, but their parents were working and didn't have time to help them.

W: Hello, this is Greenhill Studies College. I'm leaving this message in answer to your questions about the Business Studies course. Firstly, you asked when the course starts. It begins on the 12th of June, and finishes on the 11th of July. At the beginning of the course, there are no lectures because we spend time watching business videos. So you won't need to bring anything for the class, as everything is provided. Don't forget, however, that although you can bring your own notebook computer if you wish, mobile phones are not allowed in the classroom. I'm afraid these can disturb the classes. Secondly, you said you're coming by car. Well, as it's only a short course, you can use the visitor's car park which is just beside the main entrance. We're only a short walk away. Just turn right after the Science Center, cross the staff car park, and you'll see the door to the Business Studies Department in front of you. Finally, you also wanted to know if it's possible to attend a language course while you are here. Well, the answer is yes, but we only have room on our Italian classes. Oh, no, actually... there's one place on the Spanish course too. We usually offer French, Chinese, German and Japanese as well, but there aren't enough students for those classes this summer. If you want to apply for the course, please sign up before the 5th of June. Thank you.

How are you doing? Last month, I went on a trip to the Great Wall with my parents.

There were a lot of tourists, among whom were some foreigners. I greeted them in English. I climbed for a few hours with perseverance and eventually reached the desired destination. I was struck by the height and glory of the Great Wall. I was full of admiration for the ancient people of China because they made a lot of efforts to build it.

Li Hua

Unfortunately, Thompson and his grandmother were not at home. But David and the workmen still decided to lay the tiles on the roof without their permission.

When Thompson saw the new tiles on the roof, he was so excited that he couldn't help but jump up. His grandmother even burst into tears. Seconds later, they both calmed down.
