M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly, well, we're a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club — we have about 50 members at the moment, but we're growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages, you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday — Spanish; Tuesday — Italian; Wednesday — German; and Friday — French. On Thursday, we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK, well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

M: I'd like to have a good view from the window during the flight.

W: I'll give you a seat next to the window in the left row. And here is your ticket, boarding pass and luggage check. Please get on the plane at Gate 20.

W: Well, don't forget that you're 10 years older than me. You are nearly 30!

M: Ha-ha, not quite. So what would you like for your birthday?

W: A car!

M: You're not old enough to drive yet. And Mom and Dad wouldn't want to see that.

W: I know, I'm just kidding. You could give money to an animal charity for me.

M: But you don't get anything from that.

W: I get to know that my birthday gift is helping protect animals that need saving.

M: Okay...

W: And one of the charities I follow on social media will give you a photograph of an animal taken by a famous photographer if you give them enough money. And you can give me the photo.

M: Let me see ... Yes, we have two rooms available then. One is our Main Hall for 200 people. The other is the Small Hall for 100.

W: Well, we're hoping for at least 150 people. So the larger room will be suitable. How much would that cost?

M: £50 for a weekday but £100 for Saturday or Sunday.

W: Our activity is on Saturday and Sunday.

M: OK.

W: Does the charge include the use of tables, chairs and parking lots?

M: Yeah, that's all included. But you'll have to pay extra for our cameras.

W: OK.

M: Are you having a band?

W: Yes.

M: I need to tell you this: make sure that no one plays with the black box by the fire door — that's a system that cuts in when the volume reaches a certain level.

W: Sure.

Text 10

W: Hello, everyone. Do you know what a taboo is? A taboo is social behavior that is not allowed. There are many different taboos around the world. They often vary from society to society. Before you travel to a new country, it is a good idea to find out about the local taboos. For example, in India, people don't eat beef because oxen are sacred. In Japan, bathroom slippers should always remain in the bathroom and not be worn in any other room of the house. In Brazil, purple is usually worn to a funeral or to mourn the loss of a loved one. In China, giving an umbrella as a gift to a friend or a married couple should be avoided, except when it is actually raining. This is because the word "umbrella" in Chinese sounds like another Chinese word which means to separate.

Now you've got some information about taboos. Remember what to avoid and how to behave, and you'll spare yourself embarrassment. Mind that taboos change with the times. Some behavior that was not tolerated before might be accepted now.

第二节到此结束。现在你有两分钟的时间将试卷上的答案转涂到客观题答题卡上。
