M: Hello, International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information.

If you join now you can have the first month free.

M: Yes. That's what I'd like you to read after class and then write a summary, which will need to be handed in next Monday. Any questions?

W: Yes, Mr. Smith, do you have any requirements about the length of the summary?

M: Oh, as it is a summary, I don't want you to make it very complicated, so keep it short, about 150 words.

W: OK, I understand. I will try to use what we've learned today in the summary. Are there any other assignments?

M: Read the text and make sure that you understand the meaning of the text. I suggest you copy the text three times, but you needn't memorize it. Just try to remember all the new words. Be sure that you know their spelling, pronunciation and meaning.

M: Well, the traps usually work if you put peanut butter in them. You can take the mouse out to a field and let it go.

W: I bought some of those and tried the peanut butter, but it didn't really work. It sure did love that peanut butter, though.

M: Well, how about a trap that has glue on it? You could still let it go later.

W: I tried that, too, but I think this is a very small mouse. It didn't weigh enough to get stuck.

M: What are you going to do?

W: Well, I have one day to catch it. If not, I'll have to think of a story to tell mom. She's only here for seven days. Maybe I can start talking about how I lost my little pet mouse.
