二、参考范文

My Reflection on Learning English

English is one of my favourite subjects. I've learned English for ten years. For me, the most important learning method is developing a good learning habit. A good learner is also an active learner, who tries to learn more with less time. Reading as much as possible is significant to English learning as well. Besides, I like listening to and speaking English.

In these ways, I always get A in exams and I can even read some English novels, such as Harry Potter series.

I am determined to major in English in a foreign language college next year. Hence, I concentrate on my study diligently to live up to my dream. (111 words)
