One possible version:

Every April 23rd is the world book day. It's a day for people to sit down and read.

Personally, a book called Anne of Green Gables, impresses me so deeply that I read it several times. It's a story about Anne's growing in a beautiful island of Canada. Through many ups and downs in her life, Anne becomes a lovely girl who devotes herself to teaching and taking care of her family members.

Reading gives me much to share with. First, reading is one part of my life. Moreover, through extensive reading, I realize that only when viewing books from different perspectives can I gain more experience about life and study. Let's read classics together and experience life.

Text 10

M: Nowadays, people do not have to live with dangers on a daily basis, and yet many people choose to involve themselves in risky activities such as dangerous sports. I believe the following reasons can explain it.

⑱One reason that people are attracted to risky activities is that these activities often require certain skills. ⑱⑲Car-racing or freediving may give the participants a feeling of accomplishment and personal confidence in their abilities. Besides this reason, people like such activities because they love excitement. ⑲The thrill of mountain climbing or bungee jumping can make them break out of their routine. At the thought of being without the excitement of such sports, they may feel bored with their lives. A final reason that people may choose to engage in risky activities is that they want to stand out from the crowd.

⑳For these reasons, I believe risky activities will continue to be popular with some people, but I don't think I'll have a try.
