M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now you can have the first month free.

W: How did you wash it?

M: I thought about dry-cleaning, but at last I just threw it into the washing machine with my other clothes. You know, I don't like to wash it by hand.

W: What temperature did you use?

M: I usually wash my clothes in hot water, so I guess the temperature is high.

W: Well, did you check the washing instructions?

M: Maybe not.

M: We are going this big trip to Australia next year, so my parents have decided on a camping trip here in Spain.

Actually, my cousin stayed at a good campsite earlier this year, so we are going there.

W: Cool. Well, this year my mum has decided we are going to visit my aunt who is working in China, but we will be away a long time and I won't see my friends.

M: Do you know Chinese?

W: A few words.

M: Last time we went abroad, we had some trouble. Whenever we asked people for directions, we couldn't understand what they were saying.

W: Oh, I hope that won't happen to us. Anyway, how are you spending the rest of the school holiday?

M: My dad says he wants me to help with some painting.

W: That's a pain.

M: I don't mind much, as long as there is still time to see my mates. The annoying thing is, because my math grade wasn't too good this year, he has told me I have to work on it this summer, too.

(Text 10)

W: Right, the next part of my talk is about the banks in Britain and their student services. I hope you can listen to me carefully. Then you can choose a suitable bank for yourself.

First of all, the NatWest account. This account charges you nothing if you're overdrawn. Besides, you can get a credit card and the interest rate for that is about 18.9% per year. Also, the bank offers discounts on train fares in Britain. The second account is Barclays. Like the NatWest account, this account charges you nothing if you're overdrawn. In addition, this bank offers a credit card with an interest rate of 19.9%. With this account, students also get free mobile phone insurance. I imagine that's popular with many of you. But I'm afraid there aren't many branches in Britain. Right, now the HSBC account. This account charges you nothing if you're overdrawn. In addition, there's a credit card and the interest rate is 18.8%. As well as this, students get a free driving lesson.

So, that's an overview of the three main banks and their student accounts. Are there any questions?

第二节:

参考范文:

Phoebe was very moved and struggled to find the words to thank her elderly neighbor. Chloe hugged her and said there was no need to feel indebted to her. "Your kids have ended up making room in my old heart. This house is yours as much as it is mine, darling," Chloe said. That was the beginning of a lifelong friendship between Chloe and Phoebe. Chloe looked after the kids while Phoebe went to a new job she had found, and Phoebe took care of Chloe like her own mother.

One Thanksgiving, when Chloe and the Phoebes were talking, Chloe's door was knocked. It was her son Steve and her granddaughter, Eva! Steve thought it would come as a surprise for his mother. However, Steve was speechless, looking at the amount of joy and love around the house. Seeing his mother happier than she had been in years, Steve felt a little guilty for not giving her this happiness sooner. Steve made himself a promise: To become another source of love, belonging, and happiness in his beloved mother's sunset years.
