第四部分 写作 (共两节, 满分 40 分)

第一节 (满分 15 分)

写作示例:

Dear Mr. Smith,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to express my concerns about the decision to cancel the English club activities for our grade.

As a senior, I do understand the reason behind the decision. But with due respect, I believe this decision will have a negative impact on our overall learning experience. English club can bring us a lot of fun and also enhance our language skills and creativity, which in turn makes us study more efficiently.

I suggest you reschedule it for seniors. We can strike a balance between study and play. Thank you for your consideration.

Yours,

Li Hua

第二节（满分 25 分）

写作示例：

The heavy fog blocked her path but she made her way to the woods. As she pressed on deep into the woods, fear seized her. Determined, she continued to call out Sam's name. "Over...here," a faint came reply from Sam, "You.... just came for me?" Ella nodded. Sam blushed, feeling guilty. He told her that he had a terrible fall while searching for his way back, and he then lost his way, helpless and desperate. Ella helped him to his feet, putting one of his arms around her shoulders, and together they struggled back to the village with the torch.

The next day, we gathered at the statue again, Sam standing beside Ella. After a proud pat on her shoulder, Sam recounted the entire rescue process to all the other kids. He shouted, "She is a hero's daughter. Like father, like daughter." Sincerity filled his eyes as he offered his heartfelt gratitude to Ella. I smiled at Ella, surprised by the larger boy's change in attitude. Ella smiled back, her face beaming like a diamond. Ella standing up straight, her small figure seemed as tall as her father's.
