M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday Spanish; Tuesday Italian; Wednesday German; and Friday French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now, you can have the first month free.

W: I didn't buy any but I think we have some in the fridge. I'll just have a look. Hmm, well, we've got one pie, but I think I'd better get some more. I'll go to the supermarket tomorrow.

W: You are so kind. Hope the girl is all right.

M: Thank you. I will come over to your company the day after tomorrow, Friday, at 9 o'clock in the morning if that is convenient for Mr Griffin.

W: Yes. Look, this model is newly developed and began to appear in the market just several weeks ago in America. It costs 43,800 dollars. But considering the high quality, it's worth it.

M: That's why I shall choose it. But I'm afraid that I can't afford to pay in cash now.

(Text 10)

M: I'm here today to tell you about my work. People ask me why I decided to start a new magazine. Well, I've been a journalist for many years working for newspapers and magazines in this country and abroad. I've always dreamed of starting my own magazine, not because I want to be rich but because I want to do something different. And now I've done it! It is different from other magazines. So, what's the magazine like? It looks very similar to the local weekly newspapers, but it doesn't carry news or report on events as they happen. I think this is the major difference. You can buy it in all the usual places where you would buy your local newspaper. The magazine itself is divided into three main parts. The first part is what's on. There are music and film reviews, so you can decide what's worth spending your time on. And it's also got local bus timetables and useful telephone numbers. The second part is articles. We want to write about the lives of local people. They may be famous or not, but they have all done something interesting such as developing a new business. There are several famous artists in the city, like Lisa Goodchild. We hope to interview a wide variety of people. And the third part is information about special events.

My father has two pots of flowers whose bloom every year during the Spring Festival. When it is warmly, my father usually plants the red flowers in the backyard, which warm can let them ~~to~~ grow under natural conditions. They do not need much managements. My father just moves it back into the pots before winter comes. Twenty days after the Spring Festival, he carries one pot inside so that the pot of flowers can bloom in time for the festival. Twenty days later, the second pot is moved indoor to replace the first pot so that the flowers will last until A end of March. Planting these flowers not only allow my father to experience the joy of gardening but also makes our whole family spiritually pleasing.

书面表达

One possible version:

Success Comes from Hard Work

Hard work is the key to success. It is the commitment to working hard that allows us to achieve greatness in the relentless pursuit of our goals.

One example of how hard work led to my success was when I prepared for the senior high school entrance examination. Besides attending classes, I spent countless hours studying, reviewing and practicing. I sought help when faced with challenges. As a result, I passed the examination with flying colors.

The feeling of success that follows diligence is indescribable. I've gained a sense of confidence and accomplishment. I know that no goal is out of reach as long as we are willing to put in the necessary effort.
