My Favourite Book

Of all the books I read, I like A Dream of Red Mansions best. It describes a tragic love story of the two cousins, through which one witnesses the history of rise and fall of four big families. It covers various subjects ranging from medicine to architecture, making it one of the four classics in Chinese literature.

After reading A Dream of Red Mansions, I feel life is as beautiful as a poem, which is full of ups and downs, sadness and happiness. As a teenager, I should cherish the present and look forward to the future. I think the book has its own brand new look in both ideological content and artistic skills and a permanent artistic charm worthy of inheritance.
