A Volunteer Activity

To help our hometown build a National Health City, the Students' Union of our school organized a volunteer activity last weekend.

The activity was so warmly welcomed that more than 500 students signed up for it. All the volunteers were divided into several groups and they went to the nearby communities, where they helped the residents and the workers do a thorough cleaning. The communities took on a new look.

This activity was highly thought of, because it not only made a difference, but also raised the students' sense of participation.

第三节 读后续写 (满分 25 分)

One possible version:

"One minute left?" I shouted. Everybody looked at me weirdly. I looked down, feeling ashamed. But I had to finish the paper. I tried to ignore everything and continue writing. One more word, I said to myself, come on. Just like this, I forced myself to concentrate and willed my hand to scribble whatever that popped up on my mind. "Time's up! Put your pens down. Please hand in your test paper to me in the front." the teacher announced. I finished! I put down my pen, breathing a sigh of relief, and then I stood up and limped towards the teacher to hand it in-my legs felt like noodles, thanks to the extreme tension.

A week later, the teacher handed the papers back to us. It was the time for truth! I folded my paper and held it tightly in my hands, shilly-shallying about whether to check the result in front of my classmates.

Finally I decided I should face my fate bravely and unfolded it. It was an “A”! I could not believe my eyes. How could it be? It was the first time in my life that I had got an “A”. I turned to look at my teacher. Our eyes met. She nodded and gave me a big smile! At that point, I made a firm resolution: I’d be more hard-working and more confident, so that I wouldn’t be stuck and panic like this again in high school.

W: Jonathan, are you OK? I can barely hear you.

M: Thank you. I hope you kept the receipt. I’ve put on some weight.

Text 3 做简单的午饭

W: I am making some lunch. We are very busy now. We have to study for exams, so I am making something very quick. It’s just some meat with salad and potatoes if you look at it.

Text 4 请求更换房间

M: Can you change the room for me? It’s too noisy.

M: Did you get one?

W: Yeah. I was surprised to get one. Climbing was awful—I couldn’t reach the top of the wall. ⑨My team was the best at the walking, though. We were left in a place and had to find our way back. We were first because luckily I could read the map.

M: That’s great! What about the sailing? Did you have a good time going sailing?

W: Yeah. I really enjoyed the sailing, even though I wasn’t very good at it.

W: David, I called your place last night. But you didn't answer the phone. Were you out?

M: Yes. ⑩I went out at six o'clock and didn't return until half past eight.

W: Did you go to a movie?

M: No. ⑪I'm a member of the Georgetown Book Club now. We meet every Thursday of the month at 7:00 pm.

W: So where do you usually meet?

M: At the Georgetown Neighborhood Library branch of DC Public Library.

W: What do you usually do?

M: ⑫We primarily discuss recent literary fiction titles and the occasional nonfiction titles. You love reading, don't you?

W: Yes, I do. And I really want to learn more about the club. Can you tell me more about it?

M: ⑬Well, why not call Lucy at 202-727-0232? She works for the starter of the club and can give you detailed information.

W: Good idea, David.

Text 9 绿色行动

M: Hi, Sara. I heard that you are organizing a campaign on the 28th April on the occasion of Earth Day.

W: Yes. We called it "the green campaign".

M: Oh, the green! I guess this campaign is related to environment.

W: Yes, of course. All participants in the campaign will wear green because ⑭we want to tell people about the bad effects of pollution.

M: That seems great! Can you give me more details about your campaign?

W: Sure. The first day we will collect all the garbage at school. ⑮The following day we'll plant some trees. Then we will hang some posters on the school board.

M: Interesting! I'd like to help you in your campaign. I have an idea.

W: Yes, go ahead. What's it?

M: ⑯We may ask our teachers to help us in our campaign by not bringing their cars to school.

W: ⑰It's a good idea.

M: Also we may paint some paper, bottles and lamps and use them as decorations for our classrooms. I'll invite George to join us. He's ready to help, you know.

W: ⑱Wow! How great, Peter! Thank you so much for your help.

M: You're welcome.

Text 10 本周旅行安排

M: Hi, I'm Rick Steves. If you've been with us from the beginning, ⑲you'll know that we began our tour in Amsterdam, walked our way through Germany and Austria, down into Italy, back up through Switzerland and this week we are in Paris. We won't spend much time at the big attractions. In a tourist destination like Paris, even a new traveler knows to see the famous art museums of Paris and no one misses the Eiffel Tower. But we're going to some of the places the average tourist misses. ⑳For instance, the best view in town may not be from the top of the Eiffel Tower, but from the top of the Montparnasse Tower. The view includes the Eiffel Tower as well as everything else. It's cheaper and easier to get up here. We can join a ride on a public bus. ㉑I like the views from Line 63. Or we can cruise through Paris in one of their river tour boats. To cover more territory, traffic and streets for you, I ride the subway. ㉒Many European cities have subway systems, the one in Paris is really amazing. You can go anywhere in town for a reasonable price. And don't worry, getting lost is cheap. In fact, you could stay underground all day long on one ticket about the cost of a cup of coffee.
